4 of 4 (Classic Reprint) John S. C. Abbott,2015-06-30 Excerpt from The History of Napoleon Bonaparte Vol 4 of 4 The victorious Allies now assembled with shouts of exultation in the great square of Leipsic No pen can describe the horrible scene which the interior of the city presented The streets were filled with heaps of the dying and of the dead not merely of combatants but of peaceful citizens aged men women and children The houses were shattered and blown into fragments by the terrific cannonade Many parts of the city presented but piles of smouldering ruins Broken caissons baggage wagons guns and all the enginery of war were strewed in ruin around Mangled horses dismembered limbs and pools of blood polluted the pavements The Emperors of Russia and Austria with the King of Prussia accompanied by a magnificent suite and deafening the city with clarion notes of triumph entered by the southern barrier At the same moment Bernadotte also surrounded by war s most exultant pageant entered by the eastern gates The Royalist party in Leipsic who would regain opulence and power by the overthrow of the popular party received the Allies with every demonstration of joy The friends of reform retired in silence and anguish to their dwellings or abandoned their homes and accompanied the retreating army to escape persecution imprisonment and death In the explosions of artillery and the chimes ringing from the steeples and the peals of martial music they heard the knell of German liberty Their great friend who with heroism unexampled had so long held at bay all the despots of Europe was at last struck down Germany was again delivered over bound hand and foot to Russian and Prussian and Austrian absolutism Beneath that impenetrable gloom those nations still lie enthralled Why God should thus for a time have permitted despotism to triumph is one of those mysteries which is reserved for the revelations of a future day About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www
