Edgar G. Ulmer Gary D. Rhodes,2010-01-01 Edgar G Ulmer Detour on Poverty Row examines the full scope of the career of this often overlooked film auteur with essays exploring individual films groups of films such as his important work in film noir repetitive themes appearing across the spectrum of his work and a case study of three essays analyzing The Black Cat 1934 The Non-Professional Actor Catherine O'Rawe,2023-11-16 Provides the first critical overview of acting stardom and performance in post war Italian film 1945 54 with special attention to the figure of the non professional actor who looms large in neorealist filmmaking Italian post war cinema has been widely celebrated by critics and scholars films such as Bicycle Thieves De Sica 1948 and Paisan Rossellini 1946 remain globally influential particularly for their use of non professional actors This period of regeneration of Italian cinema initiated the boom in cinemagoing that made cinema an important vector of national and gender identity for audiences The book addresses the casting performance and labour of non professional actors particularly children their cultural and economic value to cinema and how their use brought ideas of the ordinary into the discourse of stars as extraordinary Relatedly O Rawe discusses critical and press discourses around acting performance and stardom often focused on the crisis of acting connected to the rise of non professionals and the girls like Sophia Loren who found sudden cinematic fame via beauty contests A History of American Movies Paul Monaco,2023-06-14 In A History of American Movies A Film by Film Look at the Art Craft and Business of Cinema Paul Monaco provides a survey of the narrative feature film from the 1920s to the present The book focuses on 170 of the most highly regarded and recognized feature films selected by the Hollywood establishment each Oscar winner for Best Picture as well as those voted the greatest by members of the American Film Institute By focusing on a select group of films that represent the epitome of these collaborations Monaco provides an essential history of one of the modern world's most complex and successful cultural institutions Hollywood Divided into three sections Classic Hollywood 1927-1948 Hollywood In Transition 1949-1974 and The New Hollywood 1975 To The Present Monaco examines some of the most memorable works in cinematic history including The General Wings Bringing Up Baby Gone with the Wind Citizen Kane Casablanca On the Waterfront The Searchers Psycho West Side Story The Godfat Movies in American History Philip C. DiMare, 2011-06-17

This provocative three-volume encyclopedia is a valuable resource for readers seeking an understanding of how movies have both reflected and helped engender America's political economic and social history Movies in American History An Encyclopedia is a reference text focused on the relationship between American society and movies and filmmaking in the United States from the late 19th century through the present Beyond discussing many important American films ranging from Birth of a Nation to Star Wars to the Harry Potter film series the essays included in the volumes explore sensitive issues in cinema related to race class and gender authored by international scholars who provide unique perspectives on American cinema and history Written by a diverse group of distinguished scholars with backgrounds in history film studies culture studies science religion and politics this reference guide will appeal to readers new to cinema studies as well as film experts Each encyclopedic entry provides data about the film an explanation of the film's cultural significance and influence information about significant individuals involved with that work and resources for further study The Cinema of Stephanie Rothman Alicia Kozma, 2022-09-20

The rare woman director working in second wave exploitation Stephanie Rothman b 1936 directed seven successful feature films served as the vice president of an independent film company and was the first woman to win the Directors Guild of America's student filmmaking prize Despite these career accomplishments Rothman retired into relative obscurity In The Cinema of Stephanie Rothman Radical Acts in Filmmaking author Alicia Kozma uses Rothman's career as an in-depth case study intertwining historical archival industrial and filmic analysis to grapple with the past present and future of women's filmmaking labor in Hollywood Understanding second wave exploitation filmmaking as a transitory space for the industrial development of contemporary Hollywood that also opened up opportunities for women practitioners Kozma argues that understudied film production cycles provide untapped spaces for discovering women's directorial work The professional career and filmography of Rothman exemplify this claim Rothman also serves as an apt example for connecting the structure of film histories to the persistent strictures of rhetorical language used to mark women filmmakers and their labor Kozma traces these imbrications across historical archives Adopting a diverse methodological approach The Cinema of Stephanie Rothman shines a needed spotlight on the problems and successes of the memorialization of women's directorial labor connecting historical and contemporary patterns of gendered labor disparity in the film industry

This book is simultaneously the first in depth scholarly consideration of Rothman the debut of the most substantive archival materials collected on Rothman and a feminist political intervention into the construction of film histories Professional Boxing United States.
