The Search for the Sacred: Is Holiness a State of Space, Time or Mind? Rabbi David Paskin, 2016-07-28 Rabbi David Paskin's The Search for the Sacred is an articulate amplification of the Torah's command to be holy to fully BE. How urgently needed this message in today's increasingly fragile world. How blessed we are to be granted access to this curated collection of wisdom from one of our great teachers Menachem Creditor Rabbi Congregation Netivot Shalom Berkeley CA Founder Rabbis Against Gun Violence. The search for the sacred has taken people of faith and those still navigating the waters of belief far and wide. We have built majestic cathedrals and meditated quietly as we've walked on the sea shores. We have found quiet moments in the hustle and bustle of our busy days and religiously attended communal prayer gatherings. In The Search for the Sacred David explores the history of this search and how we can continue to find holiness in our lives today

Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II Gavin D'Costa, 2019-10-10 In this timely study Gavin D'Costa explores Roman Catholic doctrines after the Second Vatican Council regarding the Jewish people 1965-2015. It establishes the emergence of the teaching that God's covenant with the Jewish people is irrevocable. What does this mean for Catholics regarding Jewish religious rituals the land and mission. Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II establishes that the Catholic Church has a new teaching about the Jewish people the covenant made with God is irrevocable. D'Costa faces head on three important issues arising from the new teaching. First previous Catholic teachings seem to claim Jewish rituals are invalid. He argues this is not the case. Earlier teachings allow us positive insights into the modern question. Second a nuanced case for Catholic minimalist Zionism is advanced without detriment to the Palestinian cause. This is in keeping with Catholic readings of scripture and the development of the Holy See's attitude to the State of Israel. Third the painful question of mission is explored. D'Costa shows the new approach safeguards Jewish identity and allows for the possibility of successful witness by Hebrew Catholics who retain their Jewish identity and religious life

Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people. God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people the people of Israel. Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures exodus Torah Temple land and Davidic kingship. As a Christian Israelology this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture Old and New Testaments and Christian theology. The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish Christian dialogue from the perspective of post Vatican II Catholicism

Rose Guide to the Temple Randall Price, 2021-08-03 Rose Guide to the Temple is the only Christian book on the Temple in Jerusalem with clear plastic overlays
