Erdman tells Eva Tanguay's remarkable life story with verve Born into the family of a country doctor in rural Quebec and raised in a New England mill town Tanguay found a home on the vaudeville stage Erdman follows the course of her life as she amasses fame and wealth marries and divorces twice engages in affairs closely followed in the press declares herself a Christian Scientist becomes one of the first celebrities to get plastic surgery loses her fortune following the Wall Street Crash of 1929 and receives her last notice an obituary in Variety The arc of Tanguay's career follows the history of American popular culture in the first half of the twentieth century Tanguay's appeal so dependent on her physical presence
