Military Families A. Sue Goodman, 1990 Domestic Tyranny Elizabeth Hafkin Pleck, 2004 Elizabeth Pleck's Domestic Tyranny chronicles the rise and demise of legal political and medical campaigns against domestic violence from colonial times to the present Based on in depth research into court records newspaper accounts and autobiographies this book argues that the single most consistent barrier to reform against domestic violence has been the Family Ideal that is ideas about family privacy conjugal and parental rights and family stability This edition features a new introduction surveying the multinational and cultural themes now present in recent historical writing about family violence

Mothers on Trial Phyllis Chesler, 2011-07-01 Completely updated and revised for the twenty first century Mothers on Trial remains the bible for all women facing a custody battle as well as the lawyers psychologists and others who support them This landmark book was the first to break the false stereotype about mothers getting preferential treatment over fathers when it comes to custody In this new edition Chesler shows that with few exceptions the news has only gotten worse when both the father and the mother want custody the father usually gets it The highly praised Mothers on Trial is essential reading for anyone concerned personally or professionally with custody rights and the well being of our children

Comfort Women and Post-Occupation Corporate Japan Caroline Norma, 2018-10-15 This book provides an overview of the Japanese sex industry in the years of Japan's postwar economic boom It argues that the origins of gender inequality in contemporary Japan resulted from the policies put in place during this period when there was instituted a sexual contract which provided male salarymen whose work was arduous underpaid and subject to military like organisation with easy access to women s bodies through workplace getaway trips to hot springs resorts hostess bars and prostitution tourism to South Korea as sexual inducement to acquiesce to their own exploitation Japan s economic growth the book thereby contends came at the price not just of environmental and labour degradation but also gender inequality

Out of the Shadows Josephine Fong,2010 Abuse of women by their intimate partners is a serious and continuing social problem encountered by a host of agencies This title contains research findings practice guidance and anecdotal material relevant to both students and practitioners working with the women who face the life modifying and threatening challenges of abuse

Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies, Psychology, and Mental Health Ellen Cole,Esther D Rothblum,Phyllis Chesler,2014-05-12 Feminist Foremothers in Women s Studies Psychology and Mental Health is by and about the more recent wave of feminist foremothers those who were awakened in the 1960s and 70s to the realization that something was terribly wrong These are the women who created the fields of feminist therapy feminist psychology and women s mental health as they exist today The 48 women share their life stories in the hope that they will inspire and encourage readers to take their own risks and their own journeys to the outer edges of human possibility Authors write about what led up to their achievements what their accomplishments were and how their lives were consequently changed They describe their personal stages of development in becoming feminists from unawareness to activism to action Some women focus on the painful barriers to success fame and social change others focus on the surprise they experience at how well they and the women s movement have done Some well known feminist foremothers featured include Phyllis Chesler Gloria Steinem Kate Millett Starhawk Judy Chicago Zsuzsanna Emese Budapest

Andrea Dworkin Jean Baker Miller Carol Gilligan In Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies Psychology and Mental Health many of the women see in hindsight how prior projects and ideas and even dreams were the forerunners to their most important work They note the importance of sisterhood and the presence of other women and the loneliness and isolation experienced when they don't exist They note the validation they have received from grassroots feminists in contrast to disbelief from professionals Although these women have been and continue to be looked up to as foremothers they realize how little recognition they've been given from society at large and how much better off their male counterparts are Some foremothers write about the feeling of being different not meshing with the culture of the time and about challenging the system as an outsider not an insider These are women who had few mentors who had to forge their own way hit the ground running Their stories will challenge readers to press on to continue the work these foremothers so courageously started Throughout the pages of Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies Psychology and Mental Health runs a sense of excitement and vibrancy of lives lived well of being there during the early years of the women's movement of making sacrifices of taking risks and living to see enormous changes result Throughout these pages too sounds a call not to take these changes for granted but to recognize that feminists rather than arguing over picayune issues or splitting politically correct hairs are battling for the very soul of the world

From Madness to Mutiny Amy Neustein, Michael Lesher, 2005 A powerful expose of the family court system's prejudice against mothers trying to protect their sexually abused children

Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love, 2006-09-22 Documenting key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement Barbara J Love's Feminists Who Changed America 1963-1975 will be the first comprehensive directory to document many of the founders and leaders including both well known and grassroots organizers of the second wave women's movement It tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws The biographical entries on these pioneering feminists represent their many factions all parts of the country all races and ethnic groups and all political ideologies Nancy Cott's foreword discusses the movement in relation to the earlier first wave and presents a brief overview of the second wave in the context of other contemporaneous social movements

In Harm's Way Catharine A. MacKinnon, Andrea Dworkin, 1997 This book contains the oral testimony of victims of pornography spoken on the record for the first time in history Speaking at hearings on a groundbreaking antipornography civil rights law women offer eloquent witness to the devastation pornography has caused in their lives Supported by social science experts and authorities on rape battery and prostitution discounted and opposed by free speech advocates and absolutists their riveting testimony articulates the centrality of pornography to sexual abuse and inequity today At issue in these hearings is a law conceived and drafted by Andrea Dworkin and Catharine A MacKinnon that defines harm done through pornography as a legal injury of sex discrimination warranting civil redress From the first set of hearings in Minneapolis in 1983 through those before the Massachusetts state legislature in 1992 the witnesses heard here expose the commonplace reality of denigration and sexual subordination due to pornography and refute the widespread notion that pornography is harmless expression that must be protected by the state Introduced with powerful essays by MacKinnon and Dworkin these hearings unabridged and with each word scrupulously verified constitute a unique record of a conflict over the meaning of democracy itself a major civil rights struggle for our time and a fundamental crisis in United States constitutional law Can we sacrifice the lives of women and children to a pornographer s right to free speech Can we allow the First Amendment to shield sexual exploitation and predatory sexual violence These pages contain all the arguments for protecting pornography and dramatically document its human cost California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., "I Could Not Speak My Heart" University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 This anthology of 19 articles documents the pain misunderstanding that lesbian gay bisexual transgendered people have experienced in the very recent past and demonstrates the real progress both in theory in practice that has been made in the struggle for equity social justice The articles include autobiography testament fiction poetry and traditional personal analytic essays from authors with different intellectual perspectives human rights social reform human justice feminist liberationist and queer theory The Florida Bar Journal ,1983 Proceedings of the 21st 43d annual convention of the Florida State Bar Association included in v 2 24 1st annual convention of the Florida Bar in v 24 Voices from Within Evelyn Kathleen Sommers,1995-01-01 Female Sexuality Donna Bassin,1999 Reading the inherited paper along with the contemporary essay provides a rare opportunity for a reader to experience the development of new ideas with their own integrity from the past
