scholarship The Book of Tobit and Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 1 Cor 8 10 are examined to demonstrate this thesis This sets the context for an examination of Matthew's use of Mark as a literary source in the light of Graeco Roman literary conventions in part two of the book Such a use is entirely plausible when one considers that penned in Greek probably to Diaspora audiences the canonical gospels reflect Greco Roman rather than strictly Palestinian Jewish literary conventions Both the way in which Matthew incorporates his Markan source into his text and the function and effect of this source in its new Matthean context are examined This methodology provides compelling evidence that Matthew's use of Mark as a source was toward the Judaization of his Gospel
