The old house unfolds its mysteries with its many years of history and resources. The life of Michael Mackenzie, the last and only heir to the clan, takes us in and out of decades with his friends and acquaintances, good times and bad, love and loss, trust and distrust, guidance and misguidance, and on into another dimension with the sequel of part two, The Gift Horse. Jane Saunders, who lives at the roadhouse antebellum with her mother Marge, the madame of the house of ill repute, and a group of professional ladies of the evening. Hence the name soon followed in reference to the House of the Rising Sun. Michael lives at the main farmhouse with his parents, Richard and Allison, and grandfather, who operates a massive farm and mill which includes rental properties such as the house of the rising sun. Michael, with his best friend Andrew Dow, chose a career with the police force as Richard had excelled in and assumed chief position. Although demanding, the two young cops manage to juggle law enforcement and Rising Sun Farms. This small populated community spread over a large chunk of geography is plagued with a series of accidental tragedies with life-altering results. Logical explanations are plenty as all hearsay. Accusations fly; some feel a comfort dabbling in the hereafter, and some are content with another mishap, but how many is too many? A list of contents that follows includes chapters, musical reference as background to the scenes, prologue, and foreword to the next addition.
