The Human Relations Experience ,1982 Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn. Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul. This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes. Grant,2014-11-13 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces, extracts from books, key articles, salient research findings, major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume. Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field. Carl A. Grant has spent the last 35 years researching, teaching, thinking and writing about some of the key enduring issues in multicultural education. He has contributed to a multitude of books and articles and is former President of the National Association for Multicultural Education. In his selected works Carl Grant brings together 14 of his key writings in one place. Starting with a specially written Introduction which gives an overview of his career and contextualises his selection within the development of the field, the book is divided into three parts: Race and Educational Equity, Theorizing Multicultural Education, Multicultural Teacher Education. This book not only shows how Carl Grant's thinking developed during his long and distinguished career, it also gives an insight into the development of the fields to which he contributed. Multicultural Nonsexist Education Nicholas Colangelo, E.
