Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres, 2013 Love poetry in the Spanish Golden Age redefines the lyric poetry that is located at the centre of Imperial Spanish culture s own self image and self definition This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet s sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera G ngora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Isabel Torres is Professor of Spanish Golden Age Literature and Head of Spanish and Portuguese Studies at Queen s University Belfast

History and Vision James F. Burke, 1972      Europe and Its Boundaries Andrew Davison, Himadeep Muppidi, 2009-01-01 In crating a forum for a deeply hermeneutical consideration of the project of provincializing Europe this book articulates an alternative grammar of global political thought It shows that forms of global political thought are capable of residing simultaneously within as well as significantly beyond the boundaries of European thought The Cambridge Companion to Cervantes Anthony J. Cascardi, 2002-10-17 Don Quixote de la Mancha 1605 is one of the classic texts of Western literature and the foundation of European fiction Yet Cervantes himself remains an enigmatic figure The Cambridge Companion to Cervantes first published in 2002 offers a comprehensive treatment of Cervantes life and work including his lesser known writing The essays by some of the most outstanding scholars in the field cover the historical and political context of Cervantes writing his place in Renaissance culture and the role of his masterpiece Don Quixote in the formation of the modern novel They draw on contemporary critical perspectives to shed new light on Cervantes work including the Exemplary Novels the plays and dramatic interludes and the long romances Galatea and Persiles The volume provides useful supporting material for students suggestions for further reading a detailed chronology a complete list of his published writings an overview of translations and editions and a guide to electronic resources

Neo-Latin and the Vernaculars , 2018-11-12 The early modern world was profoundly bilingual alongside the emerging vernaculars Latin continued to be pervasively used well into the 18th century Authors were often active in and conversant with both vernacular and Latin discourses The language they chose for their writings depended on various factors be they social cultural or merely aesthetic and had an impact on how and by whom these texts were received Due to the increasing interest in Neo Latin studies early modern bilingualism has recently been attracting attention This volume provides a series of case studies focusing on key aspects of early modern bilingualism such as language choice translations rewritings and the interferences between vernacular and Neo Latin discourses Contributors are Giacomo Comiati Ronny Kaiser Teodoro Katinis Francesco Lucoli Giuseppe Marcellino Marianne Pade Maxim Rigaux Florian Schaffenrath Claudia Schindler Federica Signoriello Thomas Velle Alexander Winkler Poiesis and Modernity in the Old and New Worlds Anthony J.

Cascardi, Leah Middlebrook, 2012 Poetic making from Cervantes and Gongora to Descartes and Locke Orphans of Petrarch Ignacio Enrique Navarrete, 1994-01-01 Drawing on critics ranging from Bakhtin and Curtius to Harold Bloom and Maria Corti Orphans of Petrarch offers extended discussions of these major poets and a net exposition of the development of Spanish Renaissance poetics from the point of view of modern critical theory Contributing to the discussion about imitation and belatedness and grounded in both philology and cultural theory it is the first book to integrate the Spanish difference into an understanding of Renaissance lyric as a European phenomenon BOOK JACKET Imperial Lyric Leah Middlebrook, 2009 Examines poetry and ideology in Early Modern Spain Includes eight representative Peninsular writers and one poet from the Americas to demonstrate the shifting ideologies of the self language and the state that mark watersheds for European and American modernity Provided by publisher Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain Elizabeth B. Davis, 2000 The first in depth analysis of some of the most important epic poems of the Spanish Golden Age Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain breathes new life into five of these long neglected texts Elizabeth Davis demonstrates that the epic must not be overlooked for doing so creates a significant gap in one's ability to appraise not only the cultural practice of the imperial age but also the purest expression of its ideology Davis's study focuses on heroic poetry written from 1569 to 1611 including Alonso de Ercilla's La Araucana undeniably the most significant epic poem of its time Also included are Diego de Hojeda's La Christiada Juan Rufo's La Austriada Lope de Vega's Jerusalén Conquistada and Cristóbal de Virués's Historia del Monserrate Examining these epics as the major site for the construction of cultural identities and Renaissance nationalist myths Davis analyzes the means by which the epic constructs a Spanish sense of self Because this sense of identity is not easily susceptible to direct representation it is often derived in opposition to an other which serves to reaffirm Spanish cultural superiority The Spanish Christian caballeros are almost always pitted against Amerindians Muslims Jews or other adversaries portrayed as backward or heathen for their cultural and ethnic differences The pro Castilian elite of sixteenth century Spain faced the daunting task of constructing unity at home in the process of expansion and conquest abroad yet ethnic and regional differences in the Iberian Peninsula made the creation of an imperial identity particularly difficult The epic as Davis shows strains to convey the overriding image of a Spain that appears more unified than the Spanish empire ever truly was An important reexamination of the Golden Age canon Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain brings a new twist to the study of canon formation While Davis does not ignore more traditional approaches to the literary text she does apply recent theories such as deconstruction and feminist criticism to these poems resulting in an innovative examination of the material Confronting such issues as canonicity gender the relationship between literature and Golden Age culture and that between art and power this publication offers scholars a new perspective for assessing Golden Age and Transatlantic studies

The Epic of Juan Latino Elizabeth R. Wright, 2016-01-01 In The Epic of Juan Latino Elizabeth R. Wright tells the story of Renaissance Europe's first black poet and his epic poem on the naval battle of Lepanto Austrias Carmen The Song of John of Austria Piecing together the surviving evidence Wright traces Latino's life in Granada Iberia's last Muslim metropolis from his early clandestine education as a slave in a noble household to his distinguished career as a schoolmaster at the University of Granada When intensifying racial discrimination and the chaos of the Morisco Revolt threatened Latino's hard won status he set out to secure his position by publishing an epic poem in Latin verse the Austrias Carmen that would demonstrate his mastery of Europe's international literary language and celebrate his own African heritage Through Latino's remarkable hitherto untold story Wright illuminates the racial and religious tensions of sixteenth century Spain and the position of black Africans within Spain's nascent empire and within the emerging African diaspora

Dictionary of the Literature of the Iberian Peninsula [2 Volumes] German Bleiberg, Maureen Ihrle, Janet Perez, 1993-06-21 Contributions of Iberian born writers have gone largely unrecognized by most European and American readers The rich history of literary achievements in the Iberian Peninsula is now available in this unprecedented dictionary Defining literature in the broad sense the Dictionary includes historical religious cultural and philosophical writings as well as prose poetry and drama from the Iberian Peninsula Virtually all entries have been composed by noted scholars and are complemented wherever possible by bibliographies of primary texts and selected critical studies as well as existing English translations of primary texts This two volume work generally includes literature from the tenth century to the mid 1980s and with a few exceptions is limited to writers born in the Iberian Peninsula A guide to determining the format of the Dictionary was the classic Diccionario de Literatura Española by German Bleiberg and Julian Marias But this updated and reworked version devotes more attention to writings by formerly neglected or forgotten works by female authors and to writers in major languages other than Spanish in the peninsula including Portuguese Catalan and Galician There are also entries on major time periods movements and other topics Titles of works discussed are translated to English Wherever possible the text of each entry is followed by a three part bibliography and some cross referencing The Dictionary will appeal to English speaking non specialists as well as scholars of Iberian literature

The Last Days of Humanism: A Reappraisal of Quevedo's Thought Alfonso Rey, 2017-07-05 Francisco de Quevedo Madrid 1580 1645 was well known for his rich and dynamic style achieved through an ingenious and complex manipulation of language Yet he was also a consistent and systematic thinker with moral philosophy broadly understood lying at the core of his numerous and varied works Quevedo lived in an age of transition with the Humanist tradition on the wane and his writing expresses the characteristic uncertainty of a moment of cultural transition In this book Alfonso Rey surveys Quevedo's ideas in such diverse fields as ethics politics religion and literature ideas which hitherto have received little attention New information is also provided towards a reconstruction of the cultural evolution of Europe in the years prior to the Enlightenment and thus the scope of the book extends beyond that of Spanish literature

Songs in the Plays of Lope de Vega Gustavo Umpierre, 1975 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc

Don John of Austria William Stirling-Maxwell, 1883

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained
