Excerpt from The History and Antiquities of the Diocese of Kilmacduagh In aiming at this I have endeavoured to make the existing interesting remains of our early churches illustrate the labours of their founders The stones of Venice are not the only stones that can speak to those who understand Hence I have also given our old castles a prominence which must give additional interest to the narrative of the long struggles between the encroaching Normans and the native chiefs The convulsions of the seventeenth century transferred to the men of new interests the possessions of the Irish chiefs and of the more Irish Normans In a time like ours when land tenure has become the difficulty of the hour both to the Legislature and to the people a study of those past transfers their origin and sanctions must possess a special interest And as the bishops of a diocese are not merely the spiritual guides but also the sharers of the sorrows and the joys of their flocks the sketches of our bishops are given in immediate connection with the various periods of which I have treated In the notice of the career of Dr H h de Burgo the special value of this line of treatment is best illustrated About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

W. Ill. by J. Fahey, DD., VG. J. Fahey, 1893      The History and Antiquities of the Diocese of Ossory William Carrigan, 1981      The Religious Condition of Ireland 1770-1850 Nigel Yates, 2006-02-02 Nigel Yates provides a major reassessment of the religious state of Ireland between 1770 and 1850 He argues that this was both a period of intense reform across all the major religious groups in Ireland and also one in which the seeds of religious tension which were to dominate Irish politics and society for most of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries were sown He examines in detail from a wide range of primary sources the mechanics of this reform programme and the growing tensions between religious groups in this period showing how political and religious issues became inextricably mixed and how various measures that might have been taken to improve the situation were not politically or religiously possible      List of Works Relating to British Genealogy and Local History New York Public Library, 1910      The Right Rev. Richard Luke Concanen, O.P. Vincent Reginald Hughes, 1926      The Journal of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland, 1893 Index of archaeological papers published in 1891 under the direction of the Congress of Archaeological Societies in union with the Society of Antiquaries      Journal of the Cork Historical and Archaeological Society Cork Historical and Archaeological Society, 1893      Monthly Bulletin of Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1904      Tyrone House and the St George Family Robert O'Byrne, 2017-08-02 Located on a prominent site overlooking Galway Bay in the west of Ireland Tyrone House was once one of the country's finest Georgian mansions Dating from the 1770s the building was home to generations of the French and St George families a powerful symbol of their wealth and power The interior of the house was lavishly decorated and furnished beginning with the entrance hall dominated by a life size marble statue of Lord St George But despite their advantages over the course of the nineteenth century the family went into irreversible decline and eventually forsook their great residence which was destroyed by fire in 1920 This book tells the story of the rise and fall of the St Georges and their fate embodied in what became of Tyrone House which is today a little more than a gaunt ruin      Lady Gregory Judith Hill, 2011-04-14 Lady Gregory Abbey Theatre founder and patron of W B Yeats writer and daughter of a Galway landowner became a key figure in the Irish Revival This new biography investigates Augusta Gregory's varied relationships and the contradictions and achievements of her life This portrait of a fascinating woman places Lady Gregory in the Ireland of her time showing how her nationalism in politics and literature shaped her life and work      The American Catalogue, 1896      Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1910      The American Catalog, 1896      A History of County Galway Peadar O'Dowd, 2004-10-05 Peadar O'Dowd's A History of County Galway is an enjoyable accessible and informative study of Galway's history A comprehensive book that begins with Galway's geological formation O'Dowd's study of Ireland's second largest county progresses up to the present day and is the ideal book for anyone interested in the county of the Tribesmen Galway is the largest county in the province of Connacht both in area and population It is divided in two by the great expanse of Lough Corrib the largest lake in the Republic of Ireland To
