Robert R. Redfield

The History Of My Contemporary:

The History of My Contemporary Vladimir Galaktionovich Korolenko, 1972      The History of My Contemporary Vladimir G. Korolenko, 1972      ... История моего современника Владимир Галактионович Короленко, 1930      The Contemporary Review, 1875      Contemporary Arab Thought Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab, 2025-04-29 In the last third of the twentieth century the Arab intellectual and political scene polarized between totalizing doctrines nationalist Marxist and religious and radical critique Arab thinkers were reacting to the disenchanting experience of postindependence and a widespread sense of malaise as well as to authoritarianism intolerance injustice failed development and successive defeats by Israel The foundational account of these responses Contemporary Arab Thought illuminates the relationship between cultural and political critique in the work of major Arab thinkers Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab also connects Arab debates to the postcolonial issues of Latin America and Africa revealing the shared struggles of different regions Since its first publication in 2009 this book has stood as the foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history Contemporary Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years Kassab critically reflects on the book's arguments and the responses it has provoked and she surveys the new preoccupations that have emerged in Arab debates since 2011 As crises again overtake the Middle East this landmark work continues to offer indispensable insight into the richness of contemporary Arab thought      A History of Modern Italy Anthony L. Cardoza, 2019
A History of Modern Italy addresses the question of how Italy's modern history from its prolonged process of nation building in the nineteenth century to the crises of the last two decades has produced a paradoxical blend of hyper modernity and traditionalism and thus made the country different in the broader context of Western Europe The text explores how Italians have experienced seismic shifts in their social and economic landscape over the past two centuries while simultaneously maintaining older cultural norms social practices and political methods As a second objective the book showcases a narrative of modern Italy that incorporates and blends the research findings and methodological insights of the new quantitative and cultural historical scholarship of the past two and a half decades In doing so it chronicles the regime changes that have taken the country from a Liberal monarchy through the Fascist dictatorship to a Democratic Republic while also delving into the simultaneous economic and social history of the nation through these periods      The Making of Modern Woman Lynn Abrams, 2016-04-08 Modern woman was made between the French Revolution and the end of the First World War In this time the women of Europe crafted new ideas about their sexuality motherhood the home the politics of femininity and their working roles They faced challenges about what a woman should be and how she should act From domestic ideology to women's suffrage this book charts the contests for woman's identity in the epoch shaping nineteenth century

Contemporary British Philosophy John Henry Muirhead, Hywel D. Lewis, 1925      The History of Slavery and the Slave Trade, Ancient and Modern William O. Blake, 1858      What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going      Appearance and Identity Crisis in Modern Indian History Jeevan Jyoti Chakarawarti, 2024-09-11 Chakarawarti explores the history of Indian eunuchs from the Mughal empire's fall following the mutiny of 1857 A D to the Supreme Court of India's historic ruling in 2014 A D This book examines the social political economic and religious aspects of Indian eunuchs lives providing a true narrative of this marginalized group that has been neglected for centuries It contains detailed stories of Indian eunuchs from the 1857 uprising to the historic decision to grant them the title of third gender in the Supreme Court of India in 2014 This includes the actual account of the court proceedings and how this decision brought about an enormous transition to their lives by granting them fundamental rights under the Constitution of India and the right to self identification of their gender as male female or third gender This book serves as an important resource for scholars of Gender Studies Transgender Studies and Subaltern History and especially for those who are interested in Transgender Studies in modern Indian history      A History of My Contemporary [by] V.G. Korolenko Stanley Harasewicz, 1970

The History of Modern Europe William Russell, 1871      The Archaeology of Contemporary America William R. Caraher, 2024-03-05 This book provides a survey of contemporary archaeology in the United States demonstrating the plurality of theoretical and methodological approaches that make this discipline in the US unique      Annotated Readings in the History of Modern Psychology C. James Goodwin, 2009-02-09 This new first edition reader is designed to make it easier for students to locate read and comprehend historical material Annotated Readings in the History of Modern Psychology includes thirty six chapters of substantial excerpts and papers from psychology's history and includes narrative from the author himself C James Goodwin's narrative is woven throughout the passages to give readers information about the original author describe the importance of the work put the selection into its historical context and finally to explain and elaborate upon some of the more difficult passages This book could be used as a stand alone text for a first year graduate seminar in psychology or as a supplement to a main text in the undergraduate history of psychology course Interested in this book of readings Be sure to take a look at its companion History of Modern Psychology 3e at www.wiley.com/college/goodwin

Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region

How Mechanics Shaped the Modern World David H. Allen, 2023-09-28 This updated and augmented second edition covers the history of mechanics in such a way as to explain how this all important discipline shaped our world Like the first edition Dr Allen presents the material in an engaging accessible manner with many historic insights and thorough explanations of attending concepts The text retains its coverage of classical mechanics essentially Newtonian mechanics and adds chapters on three additional topics that go well beyond classical mechanics relativity quantum nanomechanics and biomechanics A History of Modern Banks of Issue Charles Arthur Conant, 1896

Ancient Rome and Modern America; A Comparative Study of Morals and Manners Guglielmo Ferrero, 2025-08-31 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage From Yuan to Modern China and Mongolia Morris Rossabi, 2015-01-27 This wide ranging work consisting of selected essays of Morris Rossabi reflects the diverse interests of a leading scholar of China and Inner Asia It encompasses the eras from the thirteenth century to the present territories stretching from China to Mongolia to Central Asia and to the Middle East and religions from Islam to Nestorian Christianity to Judaism and Confucianism in East Central and West Asia Rossabi first challenged the conventional wisdom concerning traditional Chinese foreign relations by showing the pragmatism of Chinese officials who were not bound by Confucian strictures and stereotypes about foreigners and were actually knowledgeable about neighboring regions His studies of the territories surrounding China led to the discovery of a major omission in historical writing the lack of a biography of Khubilai Khan one of the most renowned rulers in Eurasian history His biography of Khubilai resulted in further studies of the Mongolian legacy on global history and of the significant role of women in the Mongolian empire His repeated travels in Mongolia in turn stimulated an interest in modern Mongolia especially the turbulence following the turbulence after the collapse of socialism in 1990 a subject he writes about in this book The need for greater public knowledge and awareness of China Mongolia Central Asia the Silk Roads and Islam in Asia prompted Rossabi to write general occasionally pedagogical articles about these topics for a wider audience
