The Holy Spirit And Liberation:

The Holy Spirit and Liberation Jose Comblin, 2004-02-19 Speaking from his own experiences living among the very poor in Northeastern Brazil Belgian liberation theologian Jose Comblin examines the effects of the presence of the Spirit in the world and the church Comblin's theology of the Spirit and mission provides the first systematic treatment of the Holy Spirit from a liberation perspective and is significant in that it seeks to name the action of the Spirit in the lives of the poor in the history of oppressed peoples The Holy Spirit and Liberation José Comblin, 1989 Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 2004-06-14 Daniel Migliore's Faith Seeking Understanding has been a standard introduction to Christian theology for more than a decade The book's presentation of traditional doctrine in freshly contemporary ways its concern to hear and critically engage new voices in theology and its creative and accessible style have kept it one of the most stimulating balanced and readable guides to theology available This second edition of Faith Seeking Understanding features improvements from cover to cover Besides updating and expanding the entire text of the book Migliore has added two completely new chapters The first Confessing Jesus Christ in Context explores the unique contributions to Christian theology made by recent theologians working in the African American Asian American Latin American Hispanic feminist womanist and mujerista traditions The second new chapter The Finality of Jesus Christ and Religious Pluralism addresses the growing interest in the relationship of Christianity to other religions and their adherents Migliore's three delightful theological dialogues are followed by a new appendix an extensive glossary of theological terms making the book even more useful to students seeking to understand the history themes and challenges of Christian belief The Holy Spirit Veli-Matti K. Rkk Inen, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2012-01-01 A compact discussion of the Holy Spirit in Christian theology written by a leading expert in the field Role of the Holy Spirit in Protestant Systematic Theology Wilson Varkey, 2011-08-01 This volume is a meticulously researched text on pneumatology which puts the major pneumatological issues together without confining to the traditional way of dealing with the doctrine of the Holy Spirit Although pneumatology has been a neglected field in theological discussions of the past there is a renewal of interest among theologians on pneumatology today This renewal of interest has led to the formation of this work on the role of the Holy Spirit in the Protestant Systematic Theology Through highlighting the role and significance of the Holy Spirit in the whole divine action this volume contends that pneumatology is not a dull theological locus but rather an essential theological disposition relevant for today The detailed arguments found within challenge and inspire the contemporary pneumatological discussions as it relates to all the facets of theological reflection and action The Spirit and the Salvation of the Urban Poor Brandon Kertson, 2019-11-15 Poverty What is it good for Absolutely nothing Still poverty is an ever present reality even in so called first world nations like the United States If the Holy Spirit is the member of the Trinity that is ever present in our world perhaps the Spirit can be a resource to address poverty In this pneumatological theology of poverty Brandon Kertson explores the current state of poverty in the United States arguing its complexities also require complex answers demanding a pneumatological approach that has yet to be offered Using Renewal theology and pneumatology Kertson develops a pneumatological four fold gospel based on Jesus pneumatic declaration of Luke 4 He explores how the Spirit addresses poverty through Jesus and the historic and global church and how we can begin to address poverty through the Spirit today The Spirit as savior baptizer healer and entelechy of the kingdom lays the foundation for a holistic response to the complex problem of poverty in our country Black Theology in Dialogue James Deotis Roberts,1987-01-01 Challenging all who are concerned about religion in today s world J Deotis Roberts outlines a new way of looking at the essential questions Roberts proposes a theology concerned with concrete and specific situations that also retains a universal vision In discussing the relationship of American black thought to African liberation feminist Asian and Euro American theologies he covers significant religious issues such as love justice power and evil The Freedom of God James Daryn Henry,2018-05-30 The Freedom of God wrangles with the unfolding legacy of Christian theologian Robert Jenson and presents the first in depth study of his teaching on the Holy Spirit It is a specialist monograph that will entice those with interest in academic theology systematics and twentieth and twenty first century Christian thought especially the post Barthian historicist electionism and the post Rahnerian immanent and economic trinitarian project conversations Devoted readers of the works of Robert Jenson scholars of pneumatology third article theology or pentecostal renewal movements practitioners of liberation theology and supporters of ecumenical theology will all be particularly gripped by the analysis developed in this work As a text the Freedom of God could find a home in graduate seminars seminary classrooms and in classes for advanced undergraduates for those studying Jenson as a way into systematic theology and contemporary Christian thought or in any thematic doctrinal courses on the Holy Spirit or the Trinity

Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism Organizing Spirit Jamie Pitts,2025-06-12 Contemporary theologians tend to associate the Holy Spirit with the formation of local communities social movements and fluid relational networks and not with institutions such as denominations or global church bodies In this work Jamie Pitts argues that this pneumatological sociological picture misses important aspects of the Spirit s work Pitts draws on a wide range of theological and theoretical resources to depict the Spirit as organizing the complex dynamic and relationally entangled structures that constitute creation Human organizing that seeks to participate in the Spirit can take a variety of analogous structural forms including formal organizations or institutions Organizational participation in the Spirit is not a function of an organization s scale mobility or relative informality but rather of its practical orientation toward the Spirit s goals of life solidarity healing and inclusive justice A series of case studies clarifies and extends the implications of the argument in connection to organizing for environmental gender sexual and racial justice In the final chapter Pitts addresses the role of a political theology of the organizing Spirit in imagining organizational alternatives to the global neoliberal order The Holy Spirit and the Renewal of All Things T David Beck, 2010-03-25 This book sets out to change the starting point for theological conversation about the work of the Holy Spirit Protestant theologians have associated the Spirit's work almost entirely with believers and or the church The Spirit's role is to apply Christ's atoning work to God's people In contrast early Christian reflection saw the Spirit's main role as bringing about the eschatological rule of God which reaches beyond individuals or even the church and extends to all creation This volume explores the shape pneumatology takes when we develop the theology of the Holy Spirit within an eschatological framework that has a universal scope and an unlimited history When we do so we find that pneumatology deriving from questions about what the Spirit does for us needs to give way to pneumatology that derives from questions about how the Spirit can draw us into the saving history of the triune God We Believe in the Holy Spirit Cheryl M. Peterson, Chad Rimmer, 2021-07-02 The concept of identity today is contested against the backdrop of myriad forms of social political economic and ecological exclusion How is identity expressed in a global Lutheran tradition whose members share common biblical liturgical confessional theological and spiritual foundations yet represent diverse cultures and traditions At the end of 2019 The Lutheran World Federation LWF hosted a global consultation on contemporary Lutheran identities in Addis Ababa Ethiopia The result was the papers presented in this publication The authors church leaders youth theologians lay and ordained practitioners in local communities explore the Spirit's work to revive and equip the faithful for vocation through the ministry of the church today and into the future of the Lutheran communion Wir glauben an den Heiligen Geist Globale Perspektiven lutherischer Identität Ende 2019 veranstaltete der Lutherische Weltbund LWB eine globale Konsultation zu zeitgenössischen lutherischen Identitäten Die Konsultation in Addis Abeba Äthiopien zielte darauf ab herauszufinden wie die gemeinsamen Noten lutherischer Identität in der reichen Harmonie gelebter kontextbezogener Identitäten in der gesamten lutherischen Gemeinschaft wiedergegeben werden können Der LWB engagierte Theologen seiner Mitgliedskirchen um das Wirken des Heiligen Geistes unter dem Thema Wir glauben an den Heiligen Geist Globale Perspektiven lutherischer Identität zu reflektieren Dieser Band ist eine Zusammenstellung von Aufsätzen die bei der Konsultation vorgestellt wurden Er wird Kirchen theologischen Institutionen Pastoren und Laienmitgliedern in der gesamten LWB Gemeinschaft empfohlen die die trinitarischen Grundlagen der lutherischen Tradition und die Taufberufung zur Teilnahme an Gottes Mission erforschen möchten The Holy Spirit as Communion I. Leon Harris, 2017-09-26 In The Holy Spirit as Communion Leon Harris examines the pneumatologies of Colin Gunton and Frank Macchia For both theologians the doctrine of the Holy Spirit is foundational to understanding their doctrine of God Christology and ecclesiology Drawing on the theme of communion The Holy Spirit as Communion expresses the concept that the Holy Spirit is the person who perfects the divine nature and personhood of the Father and Son It is the Holy Spirit who perfects the eternal communion within the divine Trinity which is the source of the divine action that also perfects the communion in creation as an expression of the Father's will through Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit as Communion explores the essentiality of the Holy Spirit through a unique approach to Spirit Christology Gunton is represented by a radicalized version of Chalcedon Christology and Macchia formulates his account through the overarching metaphor of Spirit baptism Therefore the doctrine of God Christology ecclesiology and eschatology cannot be construed without a proper account of pneumatology that takes into consideration the eschatological perfecting work of the third person of the Trinity who perfects creation's koinonia as a gift from the Father through the grace of Jesus Christ

The Lord is the Spirit Andrew K Gabriel, 2012-05-31 The Lord is the Spirit 2 Cor 3 17 and yet one might be excused for thinking otherwise when reading studies on God's attributes omnipotence omniscience omnipresence immutability impassibility and the like Although Christians throughout the ages have defended the deity of the Holy Spirit theologians have not adequately taken the doctrine of the Holy Spirit into account when formulating a theology of the divine attributes The resulting understandings of God fall short of being fully Trinitarian Gabriel builds on contemporary Trinitarian theology by advocating for the integration of insights from pneumatology into the doctrine of God's attributes Three case studies are presented impassibility immutability and omnipotence Gabriel writes from an evangelical and Pentecostal vantage point as he engages in ecumenical dialogue with a wide spectrum of historical and contemporary theological voices

The Third Person of the Trinity Zondervan, 2020-12-01 A Fresh Look at the Holy Spirit Recent decades have recognized pneumatology the theology of the Holy Spirit as a critical component in Christian thought worthy of increased attention While scholarly discussion about the Spirit is both creative and lively it does sometimes occur in outlying areas of doctrine and practice rather than within its context of the doctrine of God The Third Person of the Trinity represents the proceedings of the 2020 Los Angeles Theology Conference which examined pneumatology as a core component of the doctrine of the Trinity offering constructive proposals for understanding the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with theological and historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Understanding the Holy Spirit's presence in creation The mystery of the Trinity and the procession of the Spirit An exploration of a Black American pneumatology of freedom Exploring pneumatology alongside sorrow and suffering Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future
