The Human And The Holy Asian Perspectives In Christian Theology:

The Human and the Holy Emerito P. Nacpil, Douglas J. Elwood, 1978 What does it mean to be authentically human This is one of the burning questions of our time and no clear answers have yet been given In this volume a wide spectrum of Asian Christian thinkers address themselves to this question in relation to Asians sense of the sacred their experience of nature and their responsibility for society and history Here the focus is upon the holiness fo the human The Human and the Holy All-Asia Consultation on Theological Education for, The Human and the Holy Emerito P. Nacpil, Douglas J. Elwood, All-Asia Consultation on Theological Education for Christian Ministry, 1978 Exploring the New Testament in Asia Samson L. Uytanlet, Bennet Lawrence, 2024-08-31 There is a growing recognition that God s design is for us to read Scripture alongside the whole church in all of its cultural and linguistic diversity Exploring the New Testament in Asia is a textbook for students and scholars of the New Testament to help the church hear and see the good news of Jesus anew This collection of essays offers theological reflections on New Testament themes from Asian perspectives while addressing contextual issues in light of the New Testament Touching on topics such as salvation holiness poverty ethnic tensions reconciliation honoring elders persecution and hospitality the scholars in this book demonstrate the importance of a varied contemporary context for understanding the New Testament The result is a theological contribution that is both contextually relevant and biblically faithful Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Ferm, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century Christianity with an Asian Face Peter C. Fumitaka Matsuoka About the authors Index of Names The Shape of Practical Theology Ray S. Anderson, 2025-08-14

Too often in the life of the church theological reflection and the practical matters of leading and serving have been considered independently The result has been the impoverishment of both Christian faith and Christian practice In this groundbreaking book Ray Anderson reflects theologically and practically on preaching worship ethics social justice therapy family homosexuality burnout in ministry reconciliation in relationships and theological education itself The result is The Shape of Practical Theology a new and renewing foundation for engaging in Christian ministry Anderson lays out his threefold goal as follows to define more clearly the shape of practical theology as truly a theological enterprise rather than mere mastery of skills and methods to demonstrate the praxis of practical theology as critical engagement with the interface between the word of God as revealed through Scripture and the work of God taking place in and through the church in the world to deal with practical pastoral theology from the perspective of those who are on the field of play of life and ministry where preaching counseling and teaching does affect for many persons the outcome of the game Illuminated by stimulating discussion and helpful case studies The Shape of Practical Theology is aimed at seminary students at Christian educators and at working pastors and counselors Anderson's work fascinating and fruitful brings together the Word of God with the Spirit of God in the ever changing context of real life ministry Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S.

Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole The Human and the Holy Emerito P. Marcos Against the Church Robert Youngblood, 2019-05-15 The election of Ferdinand Marcos to the presidency of the Republic of the Philippines coincided with the conclusion of the work of Vatican II in 1965 and Marcos's dictatorial policies would inevitably clash with the Vatican's call for the clergy to advocate greater social justice for the poor. In this authoritative account of the role of the Catholic Church in the recent history of the Philippines, Robert L. Youngblood traces the political engagement of the Church over the twenty years between Marcos's election and his ouster from power in 1986. Drawing upon extensive research, Youngblood explains how although church and state professed to share the goal of improving the welfare of the poor, Marcos's economic development policies and oppressive rule created church opposition which helped accelerate the collapse of his regime. Youngblood considers the evolution of church programs from social action projects such as the organization of cooperatives and credit unions to the development of social justice programs that emphasized the creation of more democratic and caring communities. He examines the dynamics by which the leaders of the Philippine Roman Catholic and Protestant churches moved from a brief period of goodwill toward the Marcos dictatorship to considerable opposition by the late 1970s as church-sponsored work among the poor was increasingly viewed by the regime as subversive. Youngblood shows that after the assassination of Benigno Aquino Jr. in 1983, the deterioration of the standard of living of average Filipinos along with Marcos's repressive policies toward the churches and other abuses in the name of national security were factors which impelled powerful church figures to actively oppose the dictatorship. Tracing the internal deliberations of the Philippine churches as they came to take the lead in opposing human rights abuses, Marcos against the Church deepens our understanding of problematic relations between church and state. Historians and social scientists interested in the Philippines and modern Southeast Asia, historians of religion, political scientists working in comparative politics and political development, and others concerned with issues of human rights will want to read it.

Wrestling with God in Context M. P. Joseph, Po Ho Huang, Victor Hsu, 2018-12-01 Shoki Coe was among the first to speak of contextualization in theology. Coe argued that theology is not a reiteration of past formulas or doctrines but a response to the self-disclosing initiative of the living God in history and human experience. Yet he remains little known outside his native Taiwan. Wrestling with God in Context introduces Coe's work and social vision and evaluates his contributions to the field of missiology and ecclesiology. Eager to offer a creative and critical witness to Christian faith, Coe worked tirelessly to liberate theology from its Western captivity and shaped a generation of theological reflection on God, culture, and history. For thousands of students and church members around the world, Shoki Coe was the spiritual father that guided their contextual theological pursuit to the living reality of God. In order to reflect on his legacy, the chapters in this volume, including original essays from Stephen Bevans, Dwight Hopkins, and Enrique Dussel, tackle the critical methodological issues related to doing theology, reading the Scriptures, and being the church.

Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T.

Pardue,2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia Asian Christian Theologies: Northeast Asia John C.
