The British Journal of Photography , 1881 A Little Piece of Light Donna Hylton, Kristine Gasbarre, 2025-04-08 Random Family meets Orange Is the New Black in A Little Piece of Light a memoir of survival redemption hope and sisterhood from a bold new voice on the front lines of the criminal justice reform movement Like so many women before her and so many women yet to come Donna Hylton s early life was a nightmare of abuse that left her feeling alone and convinced of her worthlessness In 1986 she took part in a horrific act and was sentenced to 25 years to life for kidnapping and second degree murder It seemed that Donna had reached the end at age 19 due to her own mistakes and bad choices her life was over A Little Piece of Light tells the heartfelt often harrowing tale of Donna s journey back to life as she faced the truth about the crime that locked her away for 27 years and celebrated the family she found inside prison that ultimately saved her Behind the bars of Bedford Hills Correctional Facility alongside this generation s most infamous criminals Donna learned to fight then thrive For the first time in her life she realized she was not alone in the abuse and misogyny she experienced and she was also not alone in fighting back Since her release in 2012 Donna has emerged as a leading advocate for criminal justice reform and women s rights who speaks to politicians violent abusers prison officials victims and students to tell her story But it s not her story alone she is quick to say She also represents the stories of thousands of women who have been unable to speak for themselves until now
