The Madonnas Of Leningrad:

The Madonnas of Leningrad Debra Dean, 2024-03-19 An unforgettable story of love survival and the power of imagination in the most tragic circumstances Elegant and poetic Isabel Allende New York Times bestselling author of Zorro The ravages of age are eroding Marina's grip on the everyday An elderly Russian woman now living in America she cannot hold on to fresh memories the details of her grown children's lives the approaching wedding of her grandchild yet her distant past is miraculously preserved in her mind's eye Vivid images of her youth in war torn Leningrad arise unbidden carrying her back to the terrible fall of 1941 when she was a tour guide at the Hermitage Museum and the German army's approach signaled the beginning of what would be a long torturous siege on the city As the people braved starvation bitter cold and a relentless German onslaught Marina joined other staff members in removing the museum's priceless masterpieces for safekeeping As the Luftwaffe's bombs pounded the proud stricken city Marina built a personal Hermitage in her mind a refuge that would stay buried deep within her until she needed it once more Extraordinary Dean's exquisite prose shimmers illuminating us to the notion that art itself is perhaps our most necessary nourishment Chang Rae Lee New York Times bestselling author of Aloft and Native Speaker A poignant tale Booklist starred review Dean writes with passion and compelling drama People Rare is the novel that creates that blissful forgot you were reading experience but that is precisely what Debra Dean has achieved with her image rich book Seattle Post Intelligencer Poetic San Francisco Chronicle Book Review A heartfelt debut New York Times Book Review Remarkable NPR Nancy Pearl Book Review

The Madonnas of Leningrad Debra Dean, 2006 The Mirrored World Debra Dean, 2012-08-28 The critically acclaimed author of The Madonnas of Leningrad Elegant and poetic the rare kind of book that you want to keep but you have to share Isabel Allende Debra Dean returns with The Mirrored World a breathtaking novel of love and madness set in 18th century Russia Transporting readers to St Petersburg during the reign of Catherine the Great Dean brilliantly reconstructs and reimagines the life of St Xenia one of Russia's most revered and mysterious holy figures in a richly told and thought provoking work of historical fiction that recounts the unlikely transformation of a young girl a child of privilege into a saint beloved by the poor The Politics of Dementia Irmela Marei Krüger-Fürhoff, Nina Schmidt, Sue Vice, 2021-11-22 Memory loss is not always viewed purely as a contingent neurobiological process present in an ageing population rather it is frequently related to larger societal issues and political debates This edited volume examines how different media and genres novels auto biographical writings documentary as well as fictional films and graphic memoirs represent dementia for the sake of critical explorations of memory trauma and contested truths In ten analytical chapters and one piece of graphic art the contributors examine the ways in which what might seem to be the individual ahistorical diseases of dementia are used in contemporary cultural texts to represent and respond to violent historical and political events ranging from the Holocaust to postcolonial conditions all of which can prove difficult to remember Combining approaches from literary studies with insights from memory studies

trauma studies anthropology the critical medical humanities and media film and comics studies this volume explores the politics of dementia and incites new debates on cultures of remembrance while remaining attentive to the lived reality of dementia

The Diseased Brain and the Failing Mind Martina Zimmermann, 2020-06-25 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by The Wellcome Trust The Diseased Brain and the Failing Mind charts changing cultural understandings of dementia and Alzheimer's disease in scientific and cultural texts across the 20th Century Reading a range of texts from the US UK Europe and Japan the book examines how the language of dementia regarding the loss of identity loss of agency loss of self and life is rooted in scientific discourse and expressed in popular and literary texts Following changing scientific understandings of dementia the book also demonstrates how cultural expressions of the experience and dementia have fed back into the way medical institutions have treated dementia patients The book includes a glossary of scientific terms for non specialist readers

Wretched Refuge Jessica Datema, Diane Krumrey, 2010-02-19 Recent literary expressions of the immigrant experience reveal the postmodern narrative obsession with the immigrant as cultural and political outlier Wretched Refuge Immigrants and Itinerants in the Postmodern asks us to reimagine this preoccupation with what Junot Diaz calls the actual flows of third world bodies as part of a larger more pertinent motif of the postmodern itinerant As a figure of cultural becoming the itinerant stands for displacement and dispersion exceeding the confines of physical location political subjectivity and relation to the natural world Thus Wretched Refuge seeks to map the cosmopolitan positionalities of an immigrant or exilic experience the itinerant the migrant and other foreign bodies The essays in Wretched Refuge consider fiction memoir and pop culture genres that reconceive time space and the shifting situatedness of the subject within nature politics and culture The book weaves together modern and postmodern visions of itinerancy in the writings of Cormac McCarthy Bob Dylan Junot Diaz Edwidge Danticat Jeffrey Eugenides Jhumpa Lahiri Roberto Bolaño Paul Bowles and Bill McKibben among others Throughout these radically different narratives the trace of the itinerant suggests a cosmopolitan response to localized anxieties about global hegemony

Paper Hearts Debrah Williamson, 2007-08-07 From the acclaimed author of Singing With the Top Down comes a poignant tale about makeshift families and the healing power of friendship Fifteen year old runaway Chancy Deel arrives in the picture perfect town of Wenonah Oklahoma needing a helping hand It's just her luck to get it from a cranky old man named Max Boyle who is hardly the answer to her dreams After losing his beloved wife Max has only his dog Alfie and his home of fifty years to hang on to and now Adult Protective Services is convinced he can't manage on his own Max would rather end it all than resort to assisted living So when he finds a throwaway kid sleeping in his garage Max seizes one last chance for both of them Giving Chancy a home just might prevent him from losing his In securing a place to live these two solitary souls will discover something much rarer a place to belong and a heart to care Debrah Williamson creates characters who are spunky flawed courageous loveable and above all real Lisa Wingate author of Tending Roses

Alzheimer's Disease in Contemporary U.S. Fiction Cristina Garrigós, 2021-07-28 This volume seeks to bring readers to a deeper understanding of contemporary cultural and social configurations of Alzheimer's disease by analyzing 21st century U S novels in which the disease plays a key narrative role Via analysis of selected works Garrigós considers how the erasure of memory in a person with Alzheimer's affects our idea of the identity of that person and their sense of belonging to a group Starting out from three different types of memory individual social and cultural the study focuses on the narrative strategies that authors use to configure how the disease is perceived and represented This study is significant not only because of what the texts reveal about those with Alzheimer's but also for what they say about us about the authors and readers who are producing and consuming these texts about how we see this disease and what our attitudes to it say about contemporary U S society Knowledge and Pain ,2012-01-01 Pain studies both in exact sciences and in the humanities are a fast shifting field This volume condenses a spectrum of recent views of pain through the lens of humanistic studies Methodologically the volume is an interdisciplinary study of the questions pertaining to the accessibility of pain physical or emotional to understanding and of the possible influence of suffering on the enhancement of knowledge in private experience or public sphere Undeterred by the widespread belief that pain cannot be expressed in language and that it is intransmissible to others the authors of the essays in the collection show that the replicability of records and narratives of human experience provides a basis for the kind of empathetic attention dialogue and contact that can help us to register the pain of another and understand its conditions and contexts Needless to say the improvement of this understanding may also help map the ways for the ethics of response to and help for pain Whereas the authors of the volume tend to share the view of pain as a totally negative phenomenon the position taken in Elaine Scarry's The Body in Pain they hold this view applicable mainly to the attitudes to the pain of others and the imperative of minimise the causes of another's suffering They also consider this view to be culturally and temporally circumscribed The volume suggests that one's own personal experience of suffering along with the awareness of the seriality of such experience among fellow sufferers can be conducive to emotional and intellectual growth The reading of literature dealing with pain can lead to similar results through vicariously experienced suffering whose emotional corollaries and intellectual consequences may be conveyed through artistic rather than discursive means The distinctive features of the volume are that it processes these issues in a historicising way deploying the history of the ideas of pain from the Middle Ages to the present day and that it makes use of the methodology of different disciplines to do so arriving to similar conclusions through as it were different paths The disciplines include analytic philosophy historiography history of science oral history literary studies and political science

Cruising from the Baltic to the North Atlantic George and Barbara Perkins,2012-06-08 A cruise on Holland America's Prinsendam with shore visits to Denmark Warnemunde and Gustrow East Germany Tallin Estonia St Petersburg Russia Helsinki Finland Stockholm Sweden Amsterdam and Vlissingen the Netherlands Lorient France and the Carnac Megoliths Bordeaux Le Havre and Paris France La Coruna and Bilbao Spain St Peter Port Guernsey Zeebrugge Belgium and the Chocolate Museum and various theatrical productions in London Some of these places were familiar to the authors from earlier visits but most were not They found it especially interesting to see the vast changes that had occurred from the time of their visit in 1965 chronicled in OUR WEDDING JOURNEY an earlier Lulu Book Global Russian Cultures Kevin M. F. Platt,2019-01-15 Is there an essential Russian identity What happens when Russian literature is written in English by such authors as Gary Shteyngart or Lara Vapnyar What is the geographic home of Russian culture created and shared via the internet Global Russian Cultures innovatively considers these and many related questions about the literary and cultural life of Russians who in successive waves of migration have dispersed to the United States Europe and Israel or who remained after the collapse of the USSR in Ukraine the Baltic states and the Central Asian states The volume s internationally renowned contributors treat the many different global Russian cultures not as displaced elements of Russian cultural life but rather as independent entities in their own right They describe diverse forms of literature music film and everyday life that transcend and defy political geographic and even linguistic borders Arguing that Russian cultures today are many this volume contends that no state or society can lay claim to be the single or authentic representative of Russianness In so doing it contests the conceptions of culture and identity at the root of nation building projects in and around Russia

The Book of Old Ladies Ruth O. Saxton, 2025-07-30 This is a book that champions older women s stories and challenges the limiting outcomes we seem to hold for them The Book of Old Ladies introduces readers to thirty stories featuring fictional women of a certain age who increasingly become their truest selves Their stories will entertain and provide insight into the stories we tell ourselves about the limits and opportunities of aging A celebration of women who push back against the limiting stereotypes regarding older women s possibility The Book of Old Ladies is a book lover s guide to approaching old age and dealing with its losses while still embracing beauty creativity connection and wonder

Grabbed Richard Blanco, 2020-10-06 A gender inclusive anthology of poetry and prose that addresses the physical and psychological act of being grabbed or in any way assaulted The MeToo movement the infamous Access Hollywood tape and the depraved and hypocritical actions of celebrities politicians CEOs and other powerful people have caused people all over the nation to speak out in outrage to express allegiance for the victims of these assaults and to raise their voices against a culture that has allowed this behavior to continue for too long The editors asked writers and poets to add to the conversation about what being grabbed means to them in their own experience or in whatever way the word grabbed inspired them What they received are often searing heart rending works ranging in topic from sexual misconduct to racial injustice from an unwanted caress to rape expressed in powerful beautifully crafted prose and poetry The writers represented here some very well known such as Rita Dove Jericho Brown Eileen Miles Ana Menendez and Sapphire as well as some newer voices not yet fully discovered have mined their collective experiences to reveal their most vulnerable moments and in some cases to narrate moments that they have had previously been unwilling or unable to speak of What results is a collection of emotional hard hitting pieces that speak to the aftermath of violation whether mental emotional or physical

After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area's contested heritage A Mind at Play Jimmy Soni, Rob Goodman, 2017-07-18 Chronicles the life and times of the lesser known Information Age intellect revealing how his discoveries and innovations set the stage for the digital era influencing the work of such collaborators and rivals as Alan Turing John von Neumann and Vannevar Bush

When Trying to Return Home Jennifer Maritza McCauley, 2024-02-06 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A dazzling debut collection spanning a century of Black American and Afro Latino life in Puerto Rico Pittsburgh Louisiana Miami and beyond and an evocative meditation on belonging the meaning of home and how we secure freedom on our own terms Profoundly moving and powerful the stories in When Trying to Return Home dig deeply into the question of belonging A young woman is torn between overwhelming love for her mother and the need to break free from her damaging influence during a desperate and disastrous attempt to rescue her brother from foster care A man his wife and his mistress each confront the borders separating love and hate obligation and longing on the eve of a flight to San Juan A college student grapples with the space between chivalry and machismo in a tense encounter involving a nun And in 1930s Louisiana a woman attempting to find a place to call her own chances upon an old friend at a bar and must reckon with her troubled past Forming a web of desires and consequences that span generations McCauley's Black American and Afro Puerto Rican characters remind us that these voices have always been here occupying the very center of American life even if we haven't always been willing to listen Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ, 2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with
