The Majesty Of The Grand Canyon 150 Years In Art:

The Majesty of the Grand Canyon Joni Kinsey, 2004 Little was known about America's most famous natural wonder until 1869 when John Wesley Powell traveled the full length of the Grand Canyon by boat. He returned each year in 1873 he introduced it to artist Thomas Moran whose brazenly colored grand scale portrayals of the canyon stunned the public. In 1908 Moran's work prompted President Theodore Roosevelt to declare the Grand Canyon a national monument. By 1919 Congress had established Grand Canyon National Park. As the Santa Fe Railway opened up the Southwest in 1892 the company began hiring artists to paint scenes of the Grand Canyon including Moran, W. R. Leigh and Louis Akin. Today artists are still capturing the splendor of the Grand Canyon. Ed Mell, Clark Hulings, Wilson Hurley, Frank Mason, P. A. Nisbet, Bruce Aiken and Earl Carpenter are among the contemporary artists represented in The Majesty of the Grand Canyon Grand Canyon Guide

Bruce Grubbs, 2010-03-05 The Grand Canyon Randy Moore, Kara Felicia Witt, 2018-06-15 This single volume encyclopedia examines the Grand Canyon in depth from the native peoples who have survived there for centuries to the explorers who charted its vast expanses and to the challenges that Grand Canyon National Park faces. The Grand Canyon is one of the most internationally recognized landscapes and symbols of nature in North America. In this one volume encyclopedia readers can dive into the many people, places, stories and issues associated with the Grand Canyon as well as the scientific, religious and social contexts of events that have made the Grand Canyon what it is. At the front of the encyclopedia are thematic essays that examine the Grand Canyon's history, geography and culture. Essays cover topics including John Wesley Powell to whom the Grand Canyon belongs, the Native Americans who live at the Grand Canyon and the future of the Grand Canyon. Following the thematic essays are approximately 150 topical entries focusing on more specific aspects of the Grand Canyon such as trails and camps, natural formations and courageous heroes as well as shameless profiteers who have influenced the Grand Canyon's history. The encyclopedia is rounded out by a chronology of human history at the Grand Canyon, a Grand Canyon at a glance section and multiple fact-based sidebars. Through the people, places and stories explored in this work readers will gain a better understanding of how the history of the Grand Canyon is relevant to the world today. Severens, 2015-12-16 The radical changes wrought by the rise of the salon system in nineteenth century Europe provoked an interesting response from painters in the American South

Painterly trends emanating from Barbizon and Giverny emphasized the subtle textures of nature through warm color and broken brush stroke. Artists' subject matter tended to represent a prosperous middle class at play with the subtle suggestion that painting was indeed art for art's sake and not an evocation of the heroic manner. Many painters in the South took up the stylistics of Tonalism, Impressionism, and naturalism to create works of a very evocative nature, works which celebrated the Southern scene as an exotic other, a locale offering refuge from an increasingly mechanized urban environment. Scenic Impressions offers an insight into a particular period of American art history as borne out in seminal paintings from the holdings of the Johnson Collection of Spartanburg, South Carolina. By consolidating academic information on a disparate group of objects under a common theme and important global artistic umbrella, Scenic Impressions will underscore the Johnsons' commitment to illuminating the rich cultural history of the American South and advancing scholarship in the field, specifically examining some forty paintings created between 1880 and 1940, including landscapes and genre scenes. A foreword written by Kevin Sharp, director of the Dixon Gallery and Gardens in Memphis, Tennessee, introduces the topic. Two lead essays written by noted art historians Estill Curtis Pennington and Martha R. Severens discuss the history and import of the Impressionist movement abroad and domestically and specifically address the school's influence on art created in and about the American South. The featured works of art are presented in full-color plates and delineated in complementary entries written by Pennington and Severens. Also included are detailed artist biographies, illustrated by photographs of the artists, extensive documentation, and indices. Featured artists include Wayman Adams, Colin Campbell, Cooper Elliott, Daingerfield G. Ruger, Donoho Harvey Joiner, John Ross Key, Blondelle Malone, Lawrence Mazzanovich, Paul Plaschke, Hattie Saussy, Alice Ravenel Huger Smith, Anthony Thieme, and Helen Turner. American Artist, 2005. Rim to River, Tom Zoellner, 2024-02-20. A sharp examination of Arizona by a nationally acclaimed writer, Rim to River follows Tom Zoellner on a 790-mile walk across his home state as he explores key elements of Arizona culture, politics, and landscapes. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in learning more about a vibrant and baffling place. The Day in Its Color, Eric Sandweiss, 2013-06-01. Charles Cushman, 1896-1972, photographed a disappearing world in living color. Cushman's midcentury America, a place normally seen only through a scrim of gray, reveals itself as a place as vivid and real as the view through our window. The Day in Its Color introduces readers to Cushman's extraordinary work, a recently unearthed archive of photographs that is the largest known body of early color photographs by a single photographer, 14,500 in all, most shot on vivid color-saturated Kodachrome stock. From 1938-1969, Cushman, a sometime businessman and amateur photographer with an uncanny eye for everyday detail, travelled constantly, shooting everything he encountered as he ventured from New York to New Orleans, Chicago to San Francisco, and everywhere in between. His photos include portraits, ethnographic studies, agricultural and industrial landscapes, movie sets, and media events, children playing, laborers working, and thousands of street scenes, all precisely documented in time and place. The result is a chronicle of an era almost never seen or even envisioned in
