The Making Of Angels:

The Making of Angels Virginia L. Kroll, 1998-03 From renowned children's book author Virginia Kroll comes this delightful collection of original poems and crafts that explore and celebrate the mystery of angels. In addition to the beautifully illustrated text, Kroll provides patterns and instructions for twelve angel crafts.

Yves de Vallone: The Making of an Esprit-Fort James O'Higgins, 2012-12-06 The writing of the second part of this book presented a peculiar difficulty. On the one hand, I had the great advantage of having found the first rough draft of the manuscript La Religion du Chretien corrected and often re-corrected. Authorship could eventually be established beyond shadow of doubt and in the corrections one could see de Vallone changing his opinions as he wrote. On the other, the sheer length of the manuscript, about 140,000 words plus the number of corrections, well over 3,000, many of them lengthy, the enormous number of references in the text to the Classics, to the Scriptures, and Apocrypha, to the Fathers, to Philosophers, ancient and contemporary or near contemporary to de Vallone, and to a considerable number of other contemporary authors, all of which would require a footnote, not to speak of other footnotes necessary as comments on the text itself, made the production of a critical edition a financial impossibility. Instead, I decided for the sake of scholars interested in this type of manuscript to give a full, indeed meticulous, perhaps too meticulous, digest of the manuscript with a running commentary showing the influences working on de Vallone, the intellectual atmosphere in which he lived, indicating the significance of all the major revisions and corrections in his text, and commenting on what one can only describe as his own world theory and on his use of his authorities and of their influence upon him.

Milton and the Making of Paradise Lost William Poole, 2023-01-18 An authoritative and accessible introduction to Milton's life and an engaging examination of the process of composing Paradise Lost. Choice. In early 1642, Milton promised English readers a work of literature so great that they should not willingly let it die. Twenty-five years later, the epic poem Paradise Lost appeared in print. In the interim, however, the poet had gone totally blind and had also become a controversial public figure, a man who had argued for the abolition of bishops, freedom of the press, the right to divorce, and the prerogative of a nation to depose and put to death an unsatisfactory ruler. These views had rendered him an outcast. William Poole devotes particular attention to Milton's personal life, his reading and education, his ambitions and anxieties, and the way he presented himself to the world. Although always a poet first, Milton was also a theologian and civil servant, vocations that informed the composition of his masterpiece. At the emotional center of this narrative is the astounding fact that Milton lost his sight in 1652. How did a blind man compose this intensely visual work? Poole opens up the world of Milton's masterpiece to modern readers, first by exploring Milton's life and intellectual preoccupations, and then by explaining the poem itself, its structure, content, and meaning. Poole's book may well become what he shows Paradise Lost soon became: a classic Times Literary Supplement Smart and original Demonstrates with astonishing exactitude how Milton's life and most impressively of all his reading enabled this epic The Spectator This deeply learned and lucidly written book makes this most ambitious of early modern poets accessible to his modern readers Journal of British Studies The Making of a

Making of the Self Richard Valantasis, 2008-03-15 A leading scholar of ascetical studies Richard Valantasis explores a variety of ascetical traditions ranging from the Greco-Roman philosophy of Musonius Rufus the asceticism found in the Nag Hammadi Library and in certain Gnostic texts the Gospel of Thomas and other early Christian texts This collection gathers historical and theoretical essays that develop a theory of asceticism that informs the analysis of historical texts and opens the way for postmodern ascetical studies Wide ranging in historical scope and in developing theory these essays address asceticism for scholar and student alike The theory will be of particular interest to those interested in cultural theory and analysis while the historical essays provide the researcher with easy access to a significant corpus of academic writing on asceticism Milton and the Making of Paradise Lost William Poole, 2017-10-09 William Poole recounts Milton's life as

England's self-elected national poet and explains how the greatest poem of the English language came to be written How did a blind man compose this staggeringly complex intensely visual work Poole explores how Milton's life and preoccupations inform the poem itself its structure content and meaning The Making of the Last Prophet Gordon Darnell

Newby, 2022-11-23 The sacred biography of Muhammad has shaped Muslims' perceptions of the place of Islam in the religious history of the world and located the Islamic founder and prophet as the last of God's messengers As Muslims established political control over ancient Jewish and Christian communities they also claimed hegemony over the panorama of biblical prophets and holy men In the eighth century the author of the first complete biography of Muhammad set out a plan for a history of the world that culminated with the advent of Muhammad and the religion of Islam The biography not only gave the details of Muhammad's life but also retold the stories of past prophets from an Islamic perspective The Making of the Last Prophet is an examination of the reshaping and retelling of the biblical past to form the image of Muhammad as the Seal of the prophets of God Through a translation of the reconstructed Arabic text the sources the form and uses of the eighth century biography are examined for the ways in which attitudes toward Muhammad were shaped in early Islam The work particularly underscores the interplay of Jewish Christian and other Near Eastern religious ideals in the formation of Islam's notions of prophethood The Creation of Eve and Renaissance Naturalism Jack M. Greenstein, 2016-08-23

Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists The medieval iconography of Eve rising half formed from Adam's side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure At the same time the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified affective pictorial narrative that artists patrons and the public prized Jack M Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti Andrea Pisano and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve At stake Greenstein argues is the role of the artist and the power of image making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought

Materiality and the Study of Religion Tim Hutchings, Joanne McKenzie, 2016-12-01 Material culture has emerged in recent decades as a significant theoretical concern for the study of religion This book contributes to and evaluates this material turn presenting thirteen chapters of new empirical research and theoretical reflection from some of the leading international scholars of material religion Following a model for material analysis proposed in the first chapter by David Morgan the contributors trace the life cycle of religious materiality through three phases the production of religious objects their classification as religious or non religious and their circulation and use in material culture The chapters in this volume consider how objects become and cease to be sacred how materiality can be used to contest access to public space and resources and how religion is embodied and performed by individuals in their everyday lives Contributors discuss the significance of the materiality of religion across different religious traditions and diverse geographical regions paying close attention to gender age ethnicity memory and politics The volume closes with an afterword by Manuel V squez

The Works of John Owen, D.D. John Owen, 1869

The Production of Personal Life Joel Pfister, 1991 This book aims both to demystify and to reconstitute Hawthorne as an object of study by rereading Hawthorne s fictions mainly those from the early 1840 s to 1860 in the context of the emergence of a distinctively middle class personal life the domestic emotional revolution that accompanied the industrial revolution Recent histories of middle class private life gender the body and sexuality now enable us to bring a more encompassing grasp of history to our reading of the psychological in Hawthorne s writing Rather than taking the conventional view that Freud explains Hawthorne s psychological themes the author draws on the history of personal life to suggest that mid century psychological fictions help historically to account for the surfacing of a bourgeois Freudian discourse later in the century The production of Personal Life also asks why it was that women in mid century fiction especially that written by men were represented as psychological targets of male monomaniacs in the home By connecting the enforcement of middle class feminine roles to psychological tension between the sexes Hawthorne s fiction at times implicitly critiques the sentimental construction of gender roles on which the economic and cultural ascendancy of his class relied

Summa Theologiae, Prima Pars: Volume 2, On the Holy Trinity and Creation in General, QQ 27-74 Thomas Aquinas, Thomas de Vio Cajetan, 2023-06-23 When Leo XII promulgated Aeterni Patris in 1879 he stipulated that the Leonine or official edition of the Summa should always be printed in conjunction with Cajetan's Commentary For five hundred years they were studied together Generations were trained by reading through the Summa article by article with Cajetan's commentaries in hand Early printed editions of the Summa typically included them in a Talmudic arrangement as marginal text running around each article by Aquinas This edition imitates that example Recently serious thinkers of all denominations and none have found new reasons to be interested in St Thomas His text is deceptively simple yet important issues are handled in every article sometimes below the surface Cajetan extracts these hidden issues and explains and elaborates on them with remarkable affinity to modern analytical philosophy Part of that affinity lies in the use of modal logic a tool whose importance was overlooked between the Renaissance and the twentieth century The time is ripe for an analytically inspired translation of Thomas hence this volume Never until now has Cajetan's Commentary been put into

English in its entirety William Marshner's translation is consistent with fidelity to the technical force of the original The translator's footnotes acknowledge what empirical science has made obsolete in the work of St Thomas and also make clear how much today's science would have saved Thomas useless labor This volume will for the first time make Cajetan's help available to the modern reader
