The Making of Pre-industrial Britain Thomas Kingston Derry, Michael G. Blakeway, 1973     The making of pre-industrial Britain, 1969     The Making of the Modern Artist Ernest L. Veyu, 2012-12-19 The Making of the Modern Artist Stephen Dedalus and Will Brangwen examines two fictional artists by James Joyce and D H Lawrence in A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and D H Lawrence s The Rainbow respectively It brings together Joyce and Lawrence in their common concern with the modern artist and modern art Taking the two major artist characters of the two works this study establishes that Joyce and Lawrence irrespective of major background educational artistic and philosophical differences converge on the person character artistic vision and working methods of the modern artist This study makes little effort at looking at these fictional artists as alter egos of Joyce and Lawrence it treats them as modern artists in their own right It attempts to give them somewhat a critical right of existence of their own     The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library (London), Jim Emmett, 1981     Lincolnshire History and Archaeology, 1975     The Industrial Revolution, 1985     Anglo-Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War Xin Liu, 2022-08-12 Anglo Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War A Tale of Two Empires Over Two Centuries studies the fascinating encounters between the two historic empires from Queen Elizabeth I s first letter to the Ming Emperor Wanli in 1583 to Lord Palmerston s letter to the Minister of China in 1840 Starting with Queen Elizabeth I s letter to the Chinese Emperor and ending with the letter from Lord Palmerston to the Minister of China just before the Opium War this book explores the long journey in between from cultural diplomacy to gunboat diplomacy It interweaves the most known diplomatic efforts at the official level with the much unknown intellectual interactions at the people to people level from missionaries to scholars from merchants to travelers and from artists to scientists This book adopts a novel mirror approach by pairing and comparing people texts commodities artworks architecture ideologies operating systems and world views of the two empires Using letters gifts and traded goods as fulcrums and by adopting these unique lenses it puts China into the world history narratives to contextualise Anglo Chinese relations thus providing a fresh analysis of the surviving evidence Xin Liu casts a new light on understanding the Sino centric and Anglo centric world views in driving the complex relations between the two empires and the reversals of power shifts that are still unfolding today The book is not intended for specialists in history but a general audience wishing to learn more about China s historical engagement with the world     Consumption and Culture in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries John Brewer, 1991     British Book News British Council, 1993 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people     Encyclopedia of Renaissance Philosophy Marco Sgarbi, 2022-10-27 Gives accurate and reliable summaries of the current state of research It includes entries on philosophers problems terms historical periods subjects and the cultural context of Renaissance Philosophy Furthermore it covers Latin Arabic Jewish Byzantine and vernacular philosophy and includes entries on the cross fertilization of these philosophical traditions A unique feature of this encyclopedia is that it does not aim to define what Renaissance philosophy is rather simply to cover the philosophy of the period between 1300 and 1650

A Cultural History of Work in the Early Modern Age Bert De Munck, Thomas Max Safley, 2020-09-17 Winner of the 2020 PROSE Award for Multivolume Reference Humanities In the early modern age technological innovations were unimportant relative to political and social transformations The size of the workforce and the number of wage dependent people increased due in large part to population growth but also as a result of changes in the organization of work The diversity of workplaces in many significant economic sectors was on the rise in the 16th century family farming urban crafts and trades and large enterprises in mining printing and shipbuilding Moreover the increasing influence of global commerce as accompanied by local and regional specialization prompted an increased reliance on forms of under compensated and non compensated work which were integral to economic growth Economic volatility swelled the ranks of the mobile poor who moved along Europe s roads seeking sustenance and the endemic warfare of the period prompted young men to sign on as soldiers and sailors Colonists migrated to Europe s territories in the Americas Africa and Asia while others were forced overseas as servants convicts or slaves The early modern age proved to be a renaissance in the political social and cultural contexts of work which set the stage for the technological developments to come A Cultural History of Work in the Early Modern Age presents an overview of the period with essays on economies representations of work workplaces work cultures technology mobility society politics and leisure

George Eliot in Context Margaret Harris, 2013-05-30 Prodigious learned alive to the massive social changes of her time defiant of many Victorian orthodoxies George Eliot has always challenged her readers She is at once chronicler and analyst novelist of nostalgia and monumental thinker In her great novel Middlemarch she writes of that tempting range of relevancies called the universe This volume identifies a range of relevancies that inform both her fictional and her non fictional writings The range and scale of her achievement are brought into focus by cogent essays on the many contexts historical intellectual political social cultural to her work In addition there are discussions of her critical history and legacy as well as of the material conditions of production and distribution of her novels and her journalism The volume enables fuller understanding and appreciation from a twenty first century standpoint of the life and work of one of the nineteenth century s major writers

Voices and Books in the English Renaissance Jennifer Richards, 2019 Discusses how literary culture in the Renaissance was fundamentally oral and studies a variety of literary soundscapes from the schoolroom to the printing house to explore why and how sound was meaningful to Renaissance writers

Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, 2001 The Life and Works of Robert Baillie (1602-1662) Alexander D. Campbell, 2017 First full study of the life and career of the Glaswegian minister Robert Baillie establishing his significance and influence

Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards

The Cumulative Book Index , 1974 The Making of Consumer Culture in Modern Britain Peter Gurney, 2017-05-18

CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD WINNER 2018 It is commonly accepted that the consumer is now centre stage in modern Britain rather than the worker or producer Consumer choice is widely regarded as the major source of self definition and identity rather than productive activity Politicians vie with each other to fashion their appeal to citizen consumers When and how did these profound changes occur Which historical alternatives were pushed to the margins in the process In what ways did the everyday consumer practices and forms of consumer organising adopted by both middle and working class men and women shape the outcomes This study of the making of consumer culture in Britain since 1800 explores these questions introduces students to major debates and cuts a distinctive path through this vibrant field It suggests that the consumer culture that emerged during this period was shaped as much by political relationships as it was by economic and social factors

Embodied Experiences of Making in Early Modern Europe Sarah A. Bendall, Serena Dyer, 2025-10-01 Processes of making in early modern Europe were both tacit and embodied Whether making pottery food or textiles the processes of manual production rested on an intersensory connection between mind body and object This volume focuses on the body of the maker to ask how processes of making experimenting experiencing and reconstructing illuminate early modern assumptions and understandings around manual labour and material life Answers can be gleaned through both recapturing past skills and knowledge of making and by reconstructing past bodies and bodily experiences using recreative and experimental approaches In drawing attention to the body this collection underlines the importance of embodied knowledge and sensory experiences associated with the making practices of historically marginalised groups such as craftspeople women domestic servants and those who were colonised to confront biases in the written archive The history of making is found not only in technological and economic innovations which drove progress but also in the hands minds and creations of makers themselves First interdisciplinary collection of essays to Synthesise experimental history approaches used to investigate a wide range of objects dress cosmetics cooking and art and their makers or wearers in the early modern period Demonstrate how attention to objects and making in both historical and modern experimental contexts can uncover knowledge of embodied and gendered experiences that are otherwise difficult to access Contributes to the recently termed making and embodied turns in history
