The Making Of The United Kingdom Discovering History S:

Royal tourists, colonial subjects and the making of a British world, 1860-1911 Charles Reed, 2016-02-01 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This study examines the ritual space of nineteenth century royal tours of empire and the diverse array of historical actors who participated in them It suggests that the varied responses to the royal tours of the nineteenth century demonstrate how a multi centred British imperial culture was forged in the empire and was constantly made and remade appropriated and contested In this context subjects of empire provincialised the British Isles centring the colonies in their political and cultural constructions of empire Britishness citizenship and loyalty The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 The Discovery of Islands J. G. A. Pocock, 2005-09-08 The Discovery of Islands consists of a series of linked essays in British history written by one of the world's leading historians of political thought and published over the past three decades Its purpose is to present British history as that of several nations interacting with and sometimes seceding from an imperial state The commentary presents this history as that of an archipelago expanding across oceans to the Antipodes Both New Zealand history and the author's New Zealand heritage inform this vision presenting British history as oceanic and global complementing and occasionally criticising the presentation of that history as European Professor Pocock's interpretation of British history has been hugely influential in recent years making The Discovery of Islands a resource of immense value for historians of Britain and the world The Mizo Discovery of the British Raj Kyle Jackson, 2023-11-02 A history of Mizoram in Northeast India from the Indigenous perspectives of encounters with the British Empire from the 1890s to the 1920s United Kingdom Oil and Gas Fields G. Goffey, J. G. Gluyas, 2020-12-03 Geological Society Memoir 52 records the extraordinary 50 year journey that has led to the development of some 458 oil and gas fields on the UKCS It contains papers on almost 150 onshore and offshore fields in all of the UK's main petroliferous basins These papers range from look backs on some of the first developed gas fields in the Southern North Sea to papers on fields that have only just been brought into production or may still remain undeveloped and includes two candidate CO2 sequestration projects These papers are intended to provide a consistent summary of the exploration appraisal development and production history of each field leading to the current subsurface understanding which is described in greater detail As such the Memoir will be an enduring reference source for those exploring for developing producing hydrocarbons and sequestering CO2 on the UKCS in the coming decades It encapsulates the petroleum industry's deep subsurface knowledge accrued over more than 50 years of exploration and production The food & drink guide for The United Kingdom, 2025-09-25 Uncovering Pacific Pasts Hilary Howes, Tristen Jones, Matthew Spriggs, 2022-06-21 Objects have many stories to tell The stories of their makers and their uses Stories of exchange acquisition display and interpretation This book is a collection of essays highlighting some of the collections and their object biographies that were displayed in the Uncovering Pacific Pasts Histories of Archaeology in Oceania UPP

The Social Topography of a Rural Community Steve Hindle,2023-05-11 The Social Topography of a Rural Community is a micro history of an exceptionally well documented seventeenth century English village Chilvers Coton in north eastern Warwickshire Drawing on a rich archive of sources including an occupational census detailed estate maps account books private journals and hundreds of deeds and wills and employing a novel micro spatial methodology it reconstructs the life experience of some 780 inhabitants spread across 176 households This offers a unique opportunity to visualize members of an English rural community as they responded to and in turn initiated changes in social and economic activity making their own history on their own terms In so doing the book brings to the fore the social economic and spatial lives of people who have been marginalized from conventional historical discourse and offers an unusual level of detail relating to the spatial and demographic details of local life Each of the substantive chapters focuses on the contributions and experiences of a particular household in the parish the mill the vicarage the alehouse the blacksmith s forge the hovels of the labourers and coalminers the cottages of the nail smiths and ribbon weavers the farms of the yeomen and craftsmen and the manor house of Arbury Hall itself locating them precisely on specific sites in the landscape and the built environment and sketching the evolving taskscapes in which the inhabitants dwelled A novel contribution to spatial history as well as early modern material social and economic history more generally this study represents a highly original analysis of the significance of place space and flow in the history of English rural communities

The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, 1910
