Man-eaters of Tsavo and Other East African Adventures J. H. Patterson, 2015-11-15 From the time of Herodotus until to day lion stories innumerable have been told and written I have put some on record myself But no lion story I have ever heard or read equals in its long sustained and dramatic interest the story of the Tsavo man eaters as told by Col Patterson A lion story is usually a tale of adventures often very terrible and pathetic which occupied but a few hours of one night but the tale of the Tsavo man eaters is an epic of terrible tragedies spread out over several months and only at last brought to an end by the resource and determination of one man The Man-Eaters of Tsavo and Other East African Adventures J. H. Patterson, J H Patterson D S O, 2016-03-27 The Tsavo Man Eaters were a pair of notorious man eating Tsavo lions responsible for the deaths of a number of construction workers on the Kenya Uganda Railway from March through December 1898 Illustrated In March 1898 the British started building a railway bridge over the Tsavo River in Kenya The project was led by Lt Col John Henry Patterson During the next nine months of construction two maneless male Tsavo lions stalked the campsite dragging Indian workers from their tents at night and devouring them Crews tried to scare off the lions and built campfires and bomas or thorn fences around their camp for protection to keep the man eaters out to no avail the lions leaped over or crawled through the thorn fences After the new attacks hundreds of workers fled from Tsavo halting construction on the bridge Patterson set traps and tried several times to ambush the lions at night from a tree After repeated unsuccessful attempts he shot the first lion on 9 December 1898 Twenty days later the second lion was found and killed The first lion killed measured nine feet eight inches from nose to tip of tail It took eight men to carry the carcass back to camp The construction crew returned and finished the bridge in February 1899 The exact number of people killed by the lions is unclear Patterson gave several figures overall claiming that there were 135 victims Patterson writes in his account that he wounded the first lion with one bullet from a high caliber rifle This shot struck the lion in its back leg but it escaped Later it returned at night and began stalking Patterson as he tried to hunt it He shot it through the shoulder penetrating its heart with a more powerful rifle and found it lying dead the next morning not far from his platform The second lion was shot at most nine times five with the same rifle three with a third and once with a fourth rifle The first was fired from atop a scaffolding Patterson had built near goat kills done by the lion Two both from the second rifle were shot into it eleven days later as the lion was stalking Patterson and trying to flee When they had found the lion the next day thereafter Patterson shot

it three more times with the same rifle severely crippling it and shot it three times with the third rifle twice in the chest and once in the head which killed it He claimed it died gnawing on a fallen tree branch still trying to reach him After 25 years as Patterson's floor rugs the lions skins were sold to the Chicago Field Museum in 1924 for a sum of 5 000 The lions skins arrived at the museum in very poor condition The lions were then reconstructed and are now on permanent display along with the original skulls

Patterson, 2014-05-30 The historic true account of how two man eating lions wreaked havoc amongst the workers on the Tsavo railway bridge project in the present day Kenya The basis of the film The Ghost and the Darkness 1996 starring Val Kilmer In 1898 the British East Africa Company commissioned Col John H Patterson to oversee the construction of a railway bridge over the Tsavo River in present day Kenya Almost immediately after his arrival lion attacks started to take place on the workers with the lions dragging men out of their tents at night and feeding on their victims Despite taking various precautionary measures to curb the attacks the carnage escalated dramatically and eventually the bridge construction stopped due to a mass exodus of the workers The superstitious workers became increasingly hostile and many of them were certain that the lions were evil spirits who came to punish the bridge builders With his reputation livelihood and personal safety at stake Patterson realized that he had to confront this crisis in the only way he knew how hunt the man eaters down and kill them The Man-eaters of Tsavo J.
