It should have only taken one week to secure the contract for his fledgling business, but a different company won the bid. Victor has less than ten pounds in his pocket; he owes money to the hotel and has no idea how he will pay for his return passage to the United States. Desperate and clueless, he accidentally meets his double in a crowded Hotel lounge. His lookalike, Mr Rochester, gets him drunk, and the next thing he knows is waking up in a posh bedroom and being called the Earl of Rochester. At first, he thinks it is a practical joke and plays along. But when the morning newspaper arrives and he learns that the real Mr Rochester has found dead under the name Victor Jones, things become interesting.
