Backwardness and Modernization: Poland and Eastern Europe in the 16th-20th Centuries Jacek Kochanowicz, 2018-01-31 The subject of this book is the economic backwardness of Poland and Eastern Europe in the modern era The studies in the first part analyse various aspects of the region s economic and social history in the period from the 16th to the 20th centuries such as the nature of peasant economics the character of economic evolution and the ambiguity of social and economic relations between Poland and the West The second part deals with the change following the fall of state socialism Papers in this part argue that for understanding the present it is necessary to take into consideration historical legacies It is also important to look at the process of this recent change comparatively both within Eastern Europe and comparing this region with other parts of the world Professor Kochanowicz s contention in these essays is that the so called transformation has had to cope not only with the effects of state socialism but also with a much longer legacy of backwardness

Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle, Béla Greskovits, 2012-07-27 With the collapse of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance in 1991 the Eastern European nations of the former socialist bloc had to figure out their newly capitalist future Capitalism they found was not a single set of political economic relations Rather they each had to decide what sort of capitalist nation to become In Capitalist Diversity on Europe s Periphery Dorothee Bohle and Béla Greskovits trace the form that capitalism took in each country the assets and liabilities left behind by socialism the transformational strategies embraced by political and technocratic elites and the influence of transnational actors and institutions They also evaluate the impact of three regional shocks the recession of the early 1990s the rolling global financial crisis that started in July 1997 and the political shocks that attended EU enlargement in 2004 Bohle and Greskovits show that the postsocialist states have established three basic variants of capitalist political economy neoliberal embedded neoliberal and neocorporatist The Baltic states followed a neoliberal prescription low controls on capital open markets reduced provisions for social welfare The larger states of central and eastern Europe Poland Hungary and the Czech and Slovak republics have used foreign investment to stimulate export industries but retained social welfare regimes and substantial government power to enforce industrial policy Slovenia has proved to be an outlier successfully mixing competitive industries and neocorporatist social inclusion Bohle and Greskovits also describe the political contention over such arrangements in Romania Bulgaria and Croatia A highly original and theoretically sophisticated typology of capitalism in postsocialist Europe this book is unique in the breadth and depth of its conceptually coherent and empirically rich comparative analysis
