6 The Cajuns Dean W. Jobb, 2010-01-14 One of the darkest events in Canadian history is replete with the drama of war politics and untold human suffering Starting in 1755 10 000 people of French ancestry were expelled from their homes along Canada s east coast by a tyrannical British governor with the complicity of American sympathizers While some Acadians returned home to try to evade capture and forge a living others made their way to the Spanish colony of Louisiana where they farmed and fished and began the vibrant Cajun culture that is renowned around the world Award winning author Dean Jobb has written a dramatic and compelling account of Le grand derangement the event that was immortalized in Longfellow s famous poem Evangeline Jobb brings a cast of characters to life so vividly that the reader is immediately captured by their stories The richness of detail is remarkable The quality of writing is cinematic The year 2005 marks the 250th anniversary of the expulsion This book is a bridge across the centuries for the descendants of a founding people of this nation whose courage and resourcefulness still resonate in modern day Acadie Women who Give Away Millions Iris Nowell, 1996-10-22

This book pays tribute to 14 women who donated millions of dollars to causes close to their hearts Iris Nowell is the author of five books Writing her 1996 book Women Who Give Away Millions has given her a solid foundation of philanthropy the not for profit sector and the wealthy She has also written a memoir of Canadian artist Harold Town and a biography of artist filmmaker and impassioned feminist Joyce Wieland Philosophy of railroads and other essays T.C. Keefer,1972-12-15 T C Keefer s Philosophy of Railroads is one of the greatest hymns of praise to the age of iron and steel ever written in North America Better than any other document it shows why railroads were seen as the arteries of the Canadian nation during the nineteenth century This volume brings four of Keefer s works together with a brilliant introduction by H V Nelles It includes Philosophy of Railroads originally published in 1849 a lecture in which Keefer outlines his hopes for the development of the Montreal region and in passing reveals the philosophical foundation upon which they rest the Sequel to the Philosophy of Railroads a fascinating illustration of the problems the first engineers faced in raising their trade from a scramble for money and prestige into a legitimate profession and a final essay on railways written in the early 1860s expressing Keefer s disillusionment at the failure of railways to fulfill their promise At one level these essays say a great deal about railroads and about Canadian society in the nineteenth century at another they represent a cycle from enthusiastic idealism to realism in one man s thought and at yet another they introduce us to the historian s problem of establishing relationships between ideas and the material conditions within which they appear The Ladies, the Gwich'in, and the Rat Clara Vyvyan,2015-01-02 In 1926 two British women came from Cornwall to Edmonton and travelled through northern Alberta the Northwest Territories and the Yukon by rail sternwheeler and canoe For the women it was a liberating experience yet Vyvyan s narrative supported by MacLaren and LaFramboise s insightful editorial work reveals the imperialist attitudes underlying their travels Drawing Borders David R. Spencer,2013-01-31 Canada has not always had the role of friendly neighbor to the north In fact the seemingly peaceful history of relations between the United States and Canada is punctuated with instances of border disputes annexation manifestos and trade disagreements David R Spencer reveals the complexity of this relationship through a fascinating examination of political cartoons that appeared both in the U S and Canada from 1849 through the 1990s By first examining both the cultural and political differences and similarities between the two nations Spencer lays the groundwork for the main focus of his study deeper analysis of the political perspectives of the editorial cartoons Including 141 actual cartoons of the time Spencer provides meaningful references to the historical material covered An intriguing study by a leading Canadian American scholar this work is sure to interest many across the disciplines of journalism history cartoons media studies communication and international relations The Correspondence of Charles Darwin: Volume 5, 1851-1855 Charles Darwin,Frederick Burkhardt,1985 For the first time full authoritative texts of Darwin s are made available edited according to modern textual editorial principles and practice Letter writing was of crucial importance to Darwin s work not only because his poor health isolated him from direct personal communication with his scientific colleagues but also because the nature of his investigations required communication with naturalists in many fields and in all quarters of the globe Thus the letters are a mine of information about the work in progress of a creative genius who produced an intellectual revolution

Baptists and Business Paul R. Wilson, 2025-05-08 This study of Baptist businessmen from Jarvis Street Baptist Church in Toronto breaks new ground The challenges to faith exerted by the arrival of a new materialistic social ethic and a business dominated culture in the last half of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries has received little attention from Canadian historians Instead historians have primarily focused on religious leaders and intellectual challenges to faith This study examines the sociocultural challenges that confronted one group of central Canadian Baptist businessmen from 1848 to 1921 Essentially the findings offered here are used to sustain the argument that the rise of business and consumerism helped to secularize the beliefs values and practices of Baptist businessmen

Furthermore the effects of secularization were profound on both the personal and church community levels
