The Magdalene Sermon:

The Magdalene Sermon and Earlier Poems Eiléan Ní Chuilleanáin, 1991      The Magdalene Sermon Eiléan Ní Chuilleanáin, 1989      Mary Magdalene William Williams (of Worcester College, Oxford.), 1794      The Making of the Magdalen Katherine Ludwig Jansen, 2001-07-02 Best known during the Middle Ages as the prostitute who became a faithful follower of Christ Mary Magdalen was the most beloved female saint after the Virgin Mary Why the Magdalen became so popular what meanings she conveyed and how her story evolved over the centuries are the focus of this compelling exploration of late medieval religious culture Analyzing previously unpublished sermons Katherine Jansen uses the lens of medieval preaching to examine the mendicant friars transformation of Mary Magdalen a shadowy gospel figure into an emblem of action and contemplation a symbol of vanity and lust a model of perfect penance and the embodiment of hope and salvation She draws on diverse historical sources to reveal the laity's devotion to Mary Magdalen which departed significantly from the friars image of the saint signaling a major development in popular religious practice and personal piety Finally the author comprehensively addresses the question of the House of Anjou's alliance with the Magdalen and illuminates the relationship between politics and sanctity in southern France and Italy Jansen shows how perceptions of the Magdalen merged with errors and misunderstandings to shape the social spiritual and political agendas of the later Middle Ages She brings to life the rich complexity of medieval culture which condemned female sexuality and women's preaching and yet popularized the veneration of Mary Magdalen as a former prostitute chosen by Christ to be the apostle of the apostles the first to witness and preach the Good News of the Resurrection      Mary Magdalene. A sermon, etc William Bell WILLIAMS, 1794      Acts of Saint Mary Magdalene Considered Henry Stretton, 1848      Mary Magdalene John Jessopp, Mary Magdalene Capel Molyneux,      The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church: The medieval church Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen      The Sermons, Manuscripts, and Language of Roberto Caracciolo da Lecce, 2024-11-11 The book offers studies on different aspects of the life activity and written works of Roberto da Lecce one of the most famous preachers of fifteenth century Italy His preaching cycles in Italian cities were attended by huge crowds and are representative for the activity of many other less known confreres and in the meantime exceptional for their number and success His sermons were read and re used throughout Europe contributing to shaping the shared religious culture The nine authors of this book have addressed this polyhedric figure from ten different perspectives Contributors are Yoko Kimura

Salvatore Leaci Andrea Rado evi Cecilia Rado Carolyn Muessig Giacomo Mariani Marco Maggiore Lyn Blanchfield and Steven J McMichael Forty Sermons Preached at the Parish-church of St. Mary Magdalene, Milk-street, London Anthony Farindon,1663 Penitence, Preaching and the Coming of the Reformation Anne T. Thayer,2017-07-05 Why did the Reformation take root in some places and not others Although many factors were involved the varying character of penitential preaching across Europe in the decades prior to the Reformation was an especially important contributor to the subsequent receptivity of evangelical ideas In this book several collections of model sermons are studied to provide an overview of late medieval teaching on penitence What emerges is a pattern of differing emphases in different geographical locations with the characteristic emphases of the penitential message in each region suggesting how such teaching prepared the ground for both the appeal and the reputation of Luther s message People heard and interpreted the new theology using the late medieval penitential understandings and expectations they had been taught The variety of teaching found in the Church left different regions vulnerable or resistant to evangelical critiques and alternatives Despite current academic claims that the establishment of the Reformation cannot have resulted from lay religious understanding this study offers evidence that theological ideas did reach beyond religious elites to promote a degree of popular support for the Reformation

Cyclopaedia Bibliographica James Darling,1859 Fourteenth Century England VIII J. S. Hamilton,2014 Fourteenth Century England has quickly established for itself a deserved reputation for its scope and scholarship and for admirably filling a gap in the publication of medieval studies HISTORY Drawing on a diverse range of documentary literary and material evidence the contributors to this volume examine several inter related topics on political social and cultural matters in late medieval England Aspects of both arms production and armigerous society are explored from the emergence of royal armourers in the early fourteenth century to the social implications of later armour and armorial bearings Another major focus is the church and religion more broadly The nature and significance of the ceremonial entry the adventus of bishops is explored as well as the legal impact of provisions in shaping church state relations in mid century Religious constructs of women are considered in a comparative analysis of orthodox and Lollard texts Finally a group of papers looks at aspects of politics at the centre with an examination of the queenship of Isabella of France and the issue of the Mortimer inheritance in the early years of Richard II J S Hamilton is Professor and Chair Department of History Baylor University Contributors Beth Allison Barr Philip Caudrey Katherine Harvey Mark King Malcolm Mercer Shelagh Mitchell Lisa Benz St John Charlotte Whatley Sermons Preached in the Parish Church of St. Andrew, Clifton George Rundle Prynne,1846 The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane,Andrew Carpenter,Angela Bourke,Jonathan Williams,1991 Kingdom of Snow Raymond Van Dam,2002-09-27 Kingdom of Snow investigates the impact of Roman rule in Cappadocia and the fate of classical Greek culture in an increasingly Christian society The Spiritual Man and Other Sermons Phillips Brooks,1891

The Censored Pulpit Donyelle C. McCray,2019-10-16 Few have consoled the church as ably as the fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich However her prophetic gifts have received little scholarly attention Drawing on contemporary homiletical theory and the history of Christian spirituality Donyelle C McCray presents Julian as a preacher examining the apostolic dimensions of Julian s vocation as an anchoress and highlighting the steps she took to align herself with renowned preachers like Saint Cecelia Mary Magdalene and the apostle Paul Like Paul Julian saw Jesus body as her primary text placed human weakness at the center of her theology and used her own confined body as a rhetorical tool Yet she navigated a web of censorship that threatened to silence her To voice her convictions Julian developed a novel approach to authority and exploited the fluidity of the medieval English sermon genre McCray charts this process revealing Julian as a central personality in the history of preaching whose best contemporary parallels operate outside the pulpit in august figures like retreat leader Evelyn Underhill gospel singer Mother Willie Mae Ford Smith and street preacher Reverend Billy

Sermons: Courageous Women In the Bible Otis Clayton, 2024-01-16 This is a book of sermons about several courageous women in the Bible which I have identified from the Old and New Testament scriptures I developed or created these sermons because of the bold example from my Mother Elizabeth Murphy Clayton As a single parent this courageous woman raised nine children five sons and four daughters Her five sons all served honorably in the United States Armed Forces Furthermore these sermons about female biblical characters reflect my mother s personality While I created sermons about Deborah Esther Rahab Ruth and Hannah as are five courageous women of the Old Testament I also developed five homilies about five women in the New Testament These brave women are 1 Mary the Mother of Jesus 2 Mary Magdalene 3 Mary of Bethany 4 Priscilla and 5 Lydia in the New Testament These sermons are essentially a male perspective about women who continue to serve as valuable and impeccable role models for how women today especially African American women can serve as courageous examples to achieve excellence in various fields of endeavor The content provided here falls primarily into homiletic womanist studies with some relevance to African American philosophy religion cultural studies etc
