Is That a Fact? Tony Stead, 2023-10-11. The book you are about to read is destined to be the first, middle, and maybe even the last word on nonfiction writing for young children. It is certainly a text that you will return to over and over again as you do with a beloved cookbook. From the Foreword by Tomie dePaola: Over eighty-five percent of the reading and writing we do as adults is nonfiction, yet most of the reading and writing in K-3 classrooms is fiction or personal narrative. In Is That a Fact? Teaching Nonfiction Writing, K-3, Tony Stead shows you how to open the door to the rich world of nonfiction writing that goes beyond what I did: narratives and animal reports. And he convincingly demonstrates the importance of introducing nonfiction writing in the primary grades. Nonfiction inspires enthusiasm in young children because they can choose topics that are of interest to them personally. Is That a Fact? explores a variety of authentic purposes for writing nonfiction, such as describing, explaining, instructing, persuading, retelling, and exploring relationships with others. You will learn how to introduce each purpose using a variety of forms, including letters, reports, poetry, captions, directions, and interviews. Part One provides a complete overview of teaching nonfiction writing in the primary grades and includes practical ways for organizing nonfiction resources within the classroom, how to assist children in collecting information for research, ideas for helping children keep their sense of voice when writing nonfiction, a chapter on spelling with examples of how to guide students at each stage of spelling development, strategies for assessment and evaluation that guide teaching and learning engagements. Part Two provides five different explorations that were implemented in actual K 3 classrooms Each focuses on a specific purpose for writing nonfiction and features examples of whole class small group and independent instructional engagements a comprehensive assessment rubric that will help teachers tailor instruction to the needs of all learners an extensive resource section that includes lists of books in the exploration grouped by readability levels answers to the most commonly asked questions about teaching nonfiction writing The appendixes include a self assessment questionnaire reproducible pages for exploring specific writing forms and letters to parents Children need to be introduced to the different purposes of nonfiction writing They need to know how to plan compose revise and publish nonfiction beyond narrative Is That a Fact guides you in achieving these goals with your students
