From very early on in his career John F Kennedy s allure was more akin to a movie star than a presidential candidate Why were Americans so attracted to Kennedy in the late 1950s and early 1960s his glamorous image good looks cool style tough minded rhetoric and sex appeal As Steve Watts argues JFK was tailor made for the cultural atmosphere of his time He benefited from a crisis of manhood that had welled up in postwar America when men had become ensnared by bureaucracy softened by suburban comfort and emasculated by a generation of newly aggressive women Kennedy appeared to revive the modern American man as youthful and vigorous masculine and athletic and a sexual conquistador His cultural crusade involved other prominent figures including Frank Sinatra Norman Mailer Ian Fleming Hugh Hefner Ben Bradlee Kirk Douglas and Tony Curtis who collectively symbolized masculine regeneration JFK and the Masculine Mystique is not just another standard biography of the youthful president By examining Kennedy in the context of certain books movies social critiques music and cultural discussions that framed his ascendancy Watts shows us the excitement and sense of possibility the optimism and aspirations that accompanied the dawn of a new age in America African Pasts, Presents, and Futures Touria Khannous, 2013-10-17

Guys Like Us Michael Davidson,2004 Guys Like Us considers how writers of the 1950s and 60s struggled to craft literature that countered the politics of consensus and anticommunist hysteria in America and how notions of masculinity figured in their effort Michael Davidson examines a wide range of postwar literature from the fiction of Jack Kerouac to the poetry of Gwendolyn Brooks Frank O Hara Elizabeth Bishop and Sylvia Plath He also explores the connection between masculinity and sexuality in films such as Chinatown and The Lady from Shanghai as well as television shows plays and magazines from the period What results is a virtuoso work that looks at American poetic and artistic innovation through the revealing lenses of gender and history Ghost Faces David Greven,2016-02-09 Combines psychoanalysis queer theory masculinity studies and cultural studies to explore contemporary manhood in film Ghost Faces explores the insidious nature of homophobia even in contemporary Hollywood films that promote their own homo tolerance and appear to destabilize hegemonic masculinity Reframing Laura Mulvey s and Gilles Deleuze s paradigms and offering close readings grounded in psychoanalysis and queer theory David Greven examines several key films and genre trends from the late 1990s forward Movies considered range from the slasher film Scream to bromances and beta male comedies such as I Love You Man to dramas such as Donnie Darko and 25th Hour to Rob Zombie s remake of the horror film Halloween Greven also traces the disturbing connections between torture porn found in such films as Hostel and gay male Internet pornography

Post-World War II Masculinities in British and American Literature and Culture Stefan Horlacher,Kevin Floyd,2016-04-08

Analyzing literary texts plays films and photographs within a transatlantic framework this volume explores the inseparable and mutually influential relationship between different forms of national identity in Great Britain and the United States and the construction of masculinity in each country The contributors take up issues related to how certain kinds of nationally specific masculine identifications are produced how these change over time and how literature and other forms of cultural representation eventually question and deconstruct their own myths of masculinity Focusing on the period from the end of World War II to the 1980s the essays each take up a topic with particular cultural and historical resonance whether it is hypermasculinity in early cold war films the articulation of male anxieties in plays by Arthur Miller David Mamet and Sam Shepard the evolution of photographic depictions of masculinity from the 1960s to the 1980s or the representations of masculinity in the fiction of American and British writers such as Patricia Highsmith Richard Yates John Braine Martin Amis Evan S Connell James Dickey John Berger Philip Roth Frank Chin and Maxine Hong Kingston The editors and contributors make a case for the importance of understanding the larger context for the emergence of more pluralistic culturally differentiated and ultimately transnational masculinities arguing that it is possible to conceptualize and emphasize difference and commonality simultaneously

The Life Course Stephen J. Hunt, 2017-09-16 Dramatic social transformation in Western society over recent decades has had a profound impact on the way the life course is studied While people continue to experience the implications of class gender ethnicity and of course age they are more than ever able to take personal control of their own lives The Life Course considers how in a diverse and uncertain world the previously predictable stages of life are no longer fixed but increasingly open to change Focusing on continuities and change this book looks not only at the different phases of life but also at the transformation of a number of closely related social institutions such as the family education and the workplace Recognising that the established cradle to grave view is now outdated the trajectory from infancy and youth to later and end of life is followed not as a stable object of study but as a starting point for critical analysis This second edition offers an essential overview of the sociology of the life course incorporating both contemporary and conventional perspectives It calls upon current theorising around the life course as well as on up to date empirical research data This thought provoking text is relevant to researchers and students of life course studies and sociology as well as to those in nursing social work and related caring professions

The Education of Black Males in a 'Post-Racial' World Anthony L. Brown, Jamel K. Donnor, 2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education

Cable Guys Amanda D. Lotz,2014 The emergence of male centered serials such as The Shield Rescue Me and Sons Of Anarchy and the challenges these characters face in negotiating modern masculinities From the meth dealing but devoted family man Walter White of AMC s Breaking Bad to the part time basketball coach part time gigolo Ray Drecker of HBO s Hung depictions of male characters perplexed by societal expectations of men and anxious about changing American masculinity have become standard across the television landscape Engaging with a wide variety of shows including The League Dexter and Nip Tuck among many others Amanda D Lotz identifies the gradual incorporation of second wave feminism into prevailing gender norms as the catalyst for the contested masculinities on display in contemporary cable dramas Examining the emergence of male centered serials such as The Shield Rescue Me and Sons of Anarchy and the challenges these characters face in negotiating modern masculinities Lotz analyzes how these shows combine feminist approaches to fatherhood and marriage with more traditional constructions of masculine identity that emphasize men s role as providers She explores the dynamics of close male friendships both in groups as in Entourage and Men of a Certain Age wherein characters test the boundaries between the homosocial and homosexual in their relationships with each other and in the dyadic intimacy depicted in Boston Legal and Scrubs Cable Guys provides a much needed look into the under considered subject of how constructions of masculinity continue to evolve on television
