Iggers, 2007 Born in Germany Georg Iggers escaped from Nazism to the United States in his adolescence where he became one of the most distinguished scholars of European intellectual history and the history of historiography In his lectures delivered all over the world and in his numerous books translated into many languages Georg Iggers has reshaped historiography and indefatigably promoted cross cultural dialogue This volume reflects the profound impact of his oeuvre Among the contributors are leading intellectual historians but also younger scholars who explore the various cultural contexts of modern historiography focusing on changes of European and American scholarship as well as non Western historical writing in relation to developments in the West Addressing these changes from a transnational perspective this well rounded volume offers an excellent introduction to the field which will be of interest to both established historians and graduate students The Many Faces of Health, Competence and Well-Being in Old Age Hans-Werner Wahl, Herrmann Brenner, Heidrun Mollenkopf, Dietrich Rothenbacher, Christoph Rott, 2006-01-09 The main aim of the book is to provide an interdisciplinary treatment of a set of key issues of current ageing research i e health competence and well being These key issues are addressed based on three converging research streams social ecological research which assumes that major processes and outcomes of ageing such as day to day competence are shaped by social and physical spatial environments geropsychology research which is driven by a life span developmental conception of ageing and epidemiology which offers most fundamental disease function and prevention related data Each of the three major research directions are outlined by a short introduction followed by three chapters treating in an empirical manner most recent key research questions All chapters are then also discussed by renowned ageing experts This volume links ageing research with policy considerations and implications and establishes a link between European research and the knowledge base of the international scientific community concerned with ageing This book will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students in ageing research in the social and behavioural field as well as in epidemiology geriatrics geropsychiatry demography and biogerontology The Many Faces of Weimar Cinema Christian Rogowski, 2010 Traditionally Weimar cinema has been equated with the work of a handful of auteurist filmmakers and a limited number of canonical films Often a single limited phenomenon expressionist film has been taken as synonymous with the cinema of the entire period But in recent decades such reductive assessments have been challenged by developments in film theory and archival research that highlight the tremendous richness and diversity of Weimar cinema This widening of focus has brought attention to issues such as film as commodity questions of technology and genre transnational collaborations and national identity effects of changes in socioeconomics and gender roles on film spectatorship and connections between film and other arts and media Such shifts have been accompanied by archival research that has made a cornucopia of new information available now augmented by the increased availability of films from the period on DVD This wealth of new source material calls for a re evaluation of Weimar cinema that considers the legacies of lesser known directors and producers popular genres experiments of the artistic avant garde and nonfiction films all of which are aspects attended to by the essays in this volume Contributors Ofer Ashkenazi Jaimey Fisher Veronika Fuechtner Joseph Garncarz Barbara Hales Anjeana Hans Richard W McCormick Nancy P Nenno Elizabeth Otto Mihaela Petrescu Theodore F Rippey Christian Rogowski Jill Smith Philipp Stiasny Chris Wahl Cynthia Walk Valerie Weinstein Joel Westerdale Christian Rogowski is Professor of German at Amherst College

Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises: U.S. and EU Export Activities, and Barriers and Opportunities Experienced by U.S. Firms, Inv. 332-509 , Higher Education in England and France Since the 1980s C.M.A. Deer, 2002-01-01 This book provides a synthetic analysis of the rapid developments that have occurred in English and French higher education since the beginning of the 1980s The purpose is not to decide which of the two systems is better today nor is it about formulating advice on policy or best practice borrowing The aim is to identify and clarify converging or diverging trends and policies ideals and structures between the two countries since the 1980s in order to build a cross national understanding of changes in this area of public policy The book is conceived as a follow up to the framework of understanding developed by Margaret Archer in Social Origins of Educational Systems 1979 First change is comprehensively interpreted using this approach Then the power of other explanatory frameworks in particular that developed by Niklas Luhmann and contradicted by Jürgen Habermas is assessed so as to determine which provides the most convincing account to help understand the recent developments observed Far from being antithetical the three models of understanding of social evolution morphogenesis self differentiation and communicative action prove to be rich in potential for cross fertilisation

Medea, Magic, and Modernity in France Amy Wygant, 2016-04-29 Bringing together the previously disparate fields of historical witchcraft reception history poetics and psychoanalysis this innovative study shows how the glamour of the historical witch a spell that she cast was set on a course over a span of three hundred years from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries to become a generally broadcast glamour of appearance Something that a woman does that is became something that she has The antique heroine Medea witch and barbarian infamous poisoner infanticide regicide scourge of philanderers and indefatigable traveller serves as the vehicle of this development Revived on the stage of modernity by La P ruse in the sixteenth century Corneille in the seventeenth and the operatic composer Cherubini in the eighteenth her stagecraft and her witchcraft combine author Amy Wygant argues to stun her audience into identifying with her magic and making it their own In contrast to previous studies which have relied upon contemporary printed sources in order to gauge audience participation in and reaction to early modern theater Wygant argues that psychoanalytic thought about the behavior of groups can be brought to bear on the question of what happened when the early modern witch was staged This cross disciplinary study reveals the surprising early modern trajectory of our contemporary obsession with magic Medea figures the movement of culture in history and in the mirror of the witch on the stage a mirror both appealing and appalling our own cultural performances are reflected It concludes with an analysis of Diderot s claim that the historical process itself is magical and with the moment in Revolutionary France when the slight and fragile body of the golden throated singer Julie Ang lique Scio became a Medea for modernity not a witch or a child murderess but as all the press reviews insist a woman

The Physician-Legislators of France Jack D. Ellis, 1990-09-28 Explores the causes and significance of the political influence gained by French medical doctors between 1870 1914 Languages of Belief and Early Sociology in Nineteenth-Century France Michiel Van Dam,2024-09-27 This book presents a new reading of the history of French social science and religion through an investigation of early sociology s techniques for narrating the category of belief The author argues that by looking at the history of social sciences in this manner we gain a deeper understanding of both our present debates on post secularity as well as our modernist past both of which were thoroughly shaped by their reflections and critiques on the notion of belief yet failed to enter into any sort of meaningful communication with each other This book seeks to rectify this failure by introducing the concept of belief languages an anthropological framework designed to historicize different discussions on belief and allow for their comparative description and analysis Historians and the Law in Postrevolutionary France Donald R.
