source between Gildas De Excidio Britanniae written about 540 AD and Tennyson's 19th century Idylls of the King including versions from throughout Europe. The entries range from a short identifying sentence to nearly ten pages for the king himself. Each is referenced to a source which are presented in a endtable showing author and title date form and language description keywords from the entries and recent editions a vital bit of information such references usually neglect. The cross referencing is fairly good often done as a full entry identifying a name as a variant of another so the lack of an index is not a problem.
