masterworks of classical Haida sculpture now enshrined in many of the world's great museums range from exquisite tiny amulets to magnificent huge housepoles Classical Haida literature is every bit as various and fine It extends from tiny jewels crafted by master songmakers to elaborate mythic cycles lasting many hours The linguist and ethnographer John Swanton took dictation from the last great Haida speaking storytellers poets and historians from the fall of 1900 through the summer of 1901 His Haida hosts and colleagues had been raised in a wholly oral world where the mythic and the personal interpenetrate completely They joined forces with their visitor consciously creating a great treasury of Haida oral literature in written form Poet and linguist Robert Bringhurst has worked for many years with these century old manuscripts which have waited until now for the broad recognition they deserve

Nine Visits to the Mythworld Ghandl of the Qayahllaanas, 2023-10-28 In the Fall of 1900 a young American anthropologist named John Swanton arrived in the Haida country on the Northwest Coast of North America intending to learn everything he could about Haida mythology He spent the next ten months phonetically transcribing several thousand pages of myths stories histories and songs in the Haida language Swanton met a number of fine mythtellers during his year in the Haida country Each had his own style and his own repertoire Two of them a blind man in his fifties by the name of Ghandl and a crippled septuagenarian named Skaay were artists of extraordinary stature revered in their own communities and admired ever since by the few specialists aware of their great legacy Nine Visits to the Mythworld includes all the finest works of one of these master mythtellers In November 1900 when Ghandl dictated these nine stories the Haida world lay in ruins Wave upon wave of smallpox and other diseases rapacious commercial exploitation by fur traders whalers and miners and relentless missionization by the church had taken a huge toll on Haida culture Yet in the blind poet's mind the great tradition lived and in his voice it comes alive Robert Bringhurst's eloquent and vivid translations of these works are supplemented by explanatory notes that supply the needed background information
