Communication Public Journalism Global Infotainment and Consumer Culture Media Perspectives for the 21st Century will be highly useful to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers and academics in the fields of media and communication studies mass communication journalism and new media Radical Media John D. H. Downing, 2000-08-18

This is an entirely new edition of the author's 1984 study originally published by South End Press of radical media and movements The first and second sections are original to this new edition The first section explores social and cultural theory in order to argue that radical media should be a central part of our understanding of media in history The second section weaves an historical and international tapestry of radical media to illustrate their centrality and diversity from dance and graffiti to video and the internet and from satirical prints and street theatre to culture jamming subversive song performance art and underground radio The section also includes consideration of ultra rightist media as a key contrast case The book's third section provides detailed case studies of the anti fascist media explosion of 1974-75 in Portugal Italy's long running radical media radio and access video in the USA and illegal media in the dissolution of the former Soviet bloc dictatorships

Discourses of Ideology and Identity Chris Featherman, 2015-03-24 In this monograph Chris Featherman adopts a discourse analytical approach to explore the ways in which social movement ideologies and identities are discursively constructed in new and old media In the context of his argument Featherman also considers current debates surrounding the role that technologies play in democracy building and global activist networks He engages these critical issues through a case study of the 2009 Iranian presidential election protests looking at both US legacy media coverage of the protests as well as activists use of social media Through qualitative analysis of a corpus of activists Twitter tweets and Flickr uploads Featherman argues that activists social media discourses and protesters symbolic and tactical borrowing of global English contribute to micronarratives of globalization while also calling into question master narratives about Iran commonly found in mainstream Western media accounts This volume makes a timely contribution to discussions regarding the relationship between cyber rhetoric and democracy and provides new directions for researchers engaging with the influence of new media on globalized vernaculars of English The State of Resistance Assal Rad, 2022-08-25 Explores national identity formation and popular culture in post revolutionary Iran to enable a better understanding of contemporary Iran

Media Discourse Mary Talbot, 2007-09-15 This lively and accessible study of media and discourse combines theoretical reflection with empirical engagement and brings together insights from a range of disciplines Within media and cultural studies the study of media texts is dominated by an exclusive focus on representation This book adds long overdue attention to social interaction The book is divided into two sections The first outlines key theoretical issues and concepts including informalisation genre hybridisation positioning dialogism and discourse The second is a sustained interrogation of social interaction in and around media Re-examining issues of representation and interaction it critically assesses work on the para social and broadcast sociability then explores distinct sites of interaction production communities audience communities and interactivity with audiences Journalistic Practices in Restrictive Contexts Banafsheh Ranji, 2022-09-01 Based on fieldwork conducted in Iran this book discusses how it is possible for journalism to exist and function in a restrictive context. The book brings together a range of structural macro organizational meso and individual micro processes to analyze journalistic practice in a politically restrictive setting a context thus far dominated by structural explanations. Using Pierre Bourdieu's work as a starting point Banafsheh Ranji develops an explanatory framework for how Iranian journalists navigate the daily minefield of their professional environment. The analysis sheds light on the everyday reality of journalism in Iran addressing factors that hinder journalists' work while also showing how journalists use a set of double game strategies to simultaneously circumvent constraints and avoid retaliation. Moving beyond notions of censorship and repression that accompany discussions of journalism in such settings the book instead focuses on how we may think of critical journalism professionalism and journalistic power agency and autonomy in restrictive contexts. Offering powerful insights into the realities of journalism in a tightly controlled environment this book will be a key resource for scholars and students of journalism media and communication studies political science sociology Iranian studies and Middle East studies Women and Media in the Middle East Naomi Sakr, 2004-09-24 Is today's changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women? This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East. The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar. It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi-layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society. By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed Creating the Modern Iranian Woman Liora Hendelman-Baavur, 2019-11-07 A fresh look at Iranian popular culture and women's role within this prior to the 1979 Revolution
