Mathematical Conversation Starters John de Pillis, 2002 Illustrated book showing that there are few degrees of separation between mathematics and topics that provoke interesting conversations Encyclopedia of Humor Studies Salvatore Attardo, 2014-02-25 The Encyclopedia of Humor A Social History explores the concept of humor in history and modern society in the United States and internationally This work's scope encompasses the humor of children adults and even nonhuman primates throughout the ages from crude jokes and simple slapstick to sophisticated word play and ironic parody and satire As an academic social history it includes the perspectives of a wide range of disciplines including sociology child development social psychology life style history communication and entertainment media Readers will develop an understanding of the importance of humor as it has developed globally throughout history and appreciate its effects on child and adult development especially in the areas of health creativity social development and imagination This two volume set is available in both print and electronic formats Features Benefits The General Editor also serves as Editor in Chief of HUMOR International Journal of Humor Research for The International Society for Humor Studies The book's 335 articles are organized in A to Z fashion in two volumes approximately 1 000 pages This work is enhanced by an introduction by the General Editor a Foreword a list of the articles and contributors and a Reader's Guide that groups related entries thematically A Chronology of Humor a Resource Guide and a detailed Index are included Each entry concludes with References Further Readings and cross references to related entries The Index Reader's Guide themes and cross references between and among related entries combine to provide robust search and browse features in the electronic version This two volume A to Z set provides a general non technical resource for students and researchers in such diverse fields as communication and media studies sociology and anthropology social and cognitive psychology history literature and linguistics and popular culture and folklore A Bibliography of Bertrand Russell: Separate publications, 1896-1990 Kenneth Blackwell, Harry Ruja, 1994 Provides for the first time a full descriptive bibliography of Russell s writings Textually orientated it will guide the scholar collector and the general reader to the authoritative editions of Russell s works The Oxford Handbook of Taboo Words and Language Keith Allan, 2019 This volume brings together experts from a wide range of disciplines to define and describe taboo words and language and to investigate the reasons and beliefs behind them It examines topics such as impoliteness swearing censorship taboo in deaf communities translation of tabooed words and the use of taboo in banter and comedy The Letters of Rudyard Kipling Rudyard Kipling, 1990 The most popular author of his day and a paradox who was both an assertive British imperialist and a man of sensitivity and wide reading Rudyard Kipling is best remembered now as the author of The Jungle Book the Just So Stories and Kim Fully annotated volumes 5 and 6 conclude the publication of Kipling s letters a heroic effort that began with the publication of volume 1 in 1990 The Discourse of Classified Advertising Paul Bruthiaux, 1996-07-11 Linguists who have studied simplified varieties of a given language such as pidgins or the language of care givers have tended to explain similarities in their structure by the fact that they use the same mechanisms of simplification Bruthiaux tests this idea by looking at the structure of classified ads in American English using a body of 800 ads from four categories automobile sales apartments for rent help wanted and personal ads Bruthiaux s thesis is that strict uniform constraints on space should result in uniformly simple texts no matter which category they are in and that any variation would be due to the particular needs of each category To prove this he describes the linguistic structure of classified ads and shows that they are characterized by a minimal degree of morphosyntactic elaboration He then examines aspects of their conventions to highlight the role of pre patterned and prefabricated segments whose collocational rigidity may force the inclusion of otherwise dispensable items He finds that there is indeed significant variation across ad categories in terms of morphosyntactic elaboration and concludes that this is due to a greater or lesser need to be explicit as well as a greater or lesser anticipation of interaction Finally he examines the implications of these findings for the study of linguistic simplification and register variation Why We Curse Timothy Jay, 2000 The Neuro Psycho Social Theory of Speech draws together information about cursing from different disciplines and unites them to explain and describe the psychological neurological cultural and linguistic factors that underlie this phenomenon A Bibliography of Bertrand Russell Kenneth Blackwell, Harry Ruja, Sheila Turcon, 2003-09-02 From 1895 the year he published his first signed article to four days before his death in 1970 when he wrote his last Bertrand Russell was a powerful force in the world of mathematics philosophy human rights and the struggle for peace During those years he published 70 books almost as many pamphlets and over 2 000 articles he also contributed pieces to some 200 books The availability of the Bertrand Russell Archives at McMaster University since 1968 has made it possible for the first time to compile a full descriptive bibliography of his writings The Collected Papers are based on it Fully annotated the Bibliography is textually oriented and will guide the scholar collector and general reader to the authoritative editions of Russell s works It includes references to the locations of all known speeches and interviews and reproductions of the dust jackets of Russell s books Blackwell Ruja and Turcon have cooperated for nearly 20 years on the new Bibliography Lord Russell saw the extensive additions for it near the end of his life and declared I am impressed The Art of the Limerick Cyril Bibby,1978
