Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe's writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe's work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author's central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe's texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe's writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe's writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing      Screening Justice Steven Kohm, Sonia Bookman, Pauline Greenhill, 2016-12-07T00:00:00Z What do Canadian films say about crime and justice in Canada What purpose to Canadian crime films serve politically and culturally Screening Justice is a scholarly exploration of films that focus on crime and justice in Canada Crime films are pivotal for understanding and shaping Canadian sensibilities by setting out widely available templates for thinking about crime and justice in Canadian society Spanning disciplines and examining films from across Canada Screening Justice is the first comprehensive Canadian volume on crime films that takes up cultural criminology's call for more critical scholarly analyses of the interplay between crime culture and society

Amazing Flights and Flyers Shirlee Smith Matheson, 2010      Cavalry of the Air Norman S. Leach, 2014-10-20 Many of the airmen of the First World War who challenged both the enemy and death did not survive These are their stories In the clinging mud and trench warfare of WWI it was soon clear that the cavalry the elite of the elite would be of little use The dashing men and officers of the cavalry searched for a way to be front and center in the conflict and found it in the new air forces being established on both sides of the Western Front Soon lances and sabres were replaced by silk scarves and machine guns Combat on horseback was replaced by dogfights in the air one on one and in great flying formations always between warriors No technology changed more in the five years of the war and none would have a bigger impact From Great Britain to Canada to Australia and New Zealand new heroes took the honour and dash of the cavalry to the air in flying machines which would change the face of war forever
