Beyond Cadfael Lucy C. Barnhouse, Winston Black, 2023-06-01 Medievalism and medieval medicine are vibrant subfields of medieval studies enjoying sustained scholarly attention and popularity among undergraduates. Popular perceptions of medieval medicine, however, remain understudied. This book aims to fill that lacuna by providing a multifaceted study of medical medievalism defined as modern representations of medieval medicine intended for popular audiences. The volume takes as its starting point the fictional medieval detective Brother Cadfael whose observations on bodies, herbs, and death have shaped many popular conceptions of medieval medicine in the Anglophone world. The ten contributing authors move beyond Cadfael by exploring global medical medievalisms in a range of genres and cultural contexts. Beyond Cadfael is organized into three sections, the first of which engages with how disease, injury, and the sick are imagined in fictitious medieval worlds. The second, on doctors at work, looks at medieval medical practice in novels, films, and television, and public commemorative practice. These essays examine how practitioners are represented and imagined in medieval and pseudo-medieval worlds. The third section discusses medicine designed for and practiced by women in the Middle Ages and today, with a focus on East Asian medical traditions. These essays are guided by the recognition that medieval medical practices are often in dialogue with contemporary medical practices that fall outside the norms of Western biomedicine.

Deadly Things Darrell Schweitzer, Robert Reginald, 2010-12-01 In the tradition of the old Ace Doubles, two in one books here is the second Wildside Mystery Double. DEADLY THINGS: A COLLECTION OF MYSTERIOUS TALES by Darrell Schweitzer. Darrell Schweitzer's first mystery collection explores the murderous impulse in a variety of historical settings. Three mysteries are set in ancient Rome, two featuring Pliny the Younger as investigator. Two are Shakespearean mysteries, in one of which King Henry V plays detective, with the other based on The Two Noble Kinsmen. Three Sherlock Holmes tales involve the apparent misapplication of the Great Detective's methods to the supernatural: a revelation of one of Watson's unwritten cases and a multi-genre record breaker, an alternate history vampire cat detective story. THE JUDGMENT OF THE GODS AND OTHER VERDICTS OF HISTORY by Robert Reginald. Four scintillating tales of detection from ancient and medieval times. In The Judgment of the Gods, a young Greek trader must solve the murder of Assyrian King Sennacherib. William of Occam, the medieval philosopher, is forced by Pope John XXII in Occam's Razor to solve the murders of French King Philip IV and Pope Clement V. Occam returns in Occam's Treasure, this time unraveling the puzzle surrounding the killing of clergymen in Avignon. In Occam's Measure, the great thinker must stop a vicious serial killer stalking the night-time streets of the papal city. Great mystery and fantasy reading.
