Encyclopedia of the Literature of Empire Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2010 Examines the world s greatest literature about empires and imperialism including more than 200 entries on writers classic works themes and concepts Nigerian English David Jowitt,2018-11-05 Although the past few decades have witnessed growing interest in varieties of English around the world no study of the Nigerian variety intended for the international market has yet been published Making use of well known paradigms the book will relate Nigerian English as a Second Language variety to other World Englishes Its chief overall concern however is to provide a detailed descriptive account of the variety seeking to show what is distinctive about it and also in this perspective distinguishing between more educated and less educated usage After giving a sociolinguistic profile of Nigeria where English today enjoys a more prominent role than ever before it will examine in turn the phonology morpho syntax and lexico semantics of Nigerian English with samples of written texts from the eighteenth century to the present It will also give a comprehensive summary of academic research carried out in the field over the past fifty years In this way the book will provide an introduction to the subject for the benefit of scholars and students in universities in many countries and will serve as a useful companion to other books in De Gruyter Mouton s Dialects of English series Wole Soyinka: Literature, Activism, and African Transformation Bola Dauda,Toyin Falola,2021-09-09 This timely and expansive biography of Wole Soyinka the Nigerian writer Nobel laureate and social activist shows how the author s early years influence his life s work and how his writing in turn informs his political engagement Three sections spanning his life major texts and place in history connect Soyinka s legacy with global issues beyond the borders of his own country and indeed beyond the African continent Covering his encounters with the widespread rise of kleptocratic rule and international corporate corruption his reflection on the human condition of the North South divide and the consequences of postcolonialism this comprehensive biography locates Wole Soyinka as a global figure whose life and works have made him a subject of conversation in the public sphere as well as one of Africa s most successful and popular authors Looking at the different forms of Soyinka s work plays novels and memoirs among others this volume argues that Soyinka used writing to inform mobilize and sometimes incite civil action in a decades long attempt at literary social engineering The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 Oyekan Owomoyela,2008-10-21 Composed by a premier scholar of African literature this volume is a comprehensive guide to the literary traditions of Gambia Sierra Leone Liberia Ghana and Nigeria five distinct countries bound by their experience with colonialism Oyekan Owomoyela begins with an overview of the authors texts and historical events that have shaped the development of postwar Anglophone literatures in this region exploring shifts in theme and the role of foreign sponsorship and illuminating recent debates regarding the language identity gender and social commitments of various authors and their works His introduction concludes with a bibliography of key critical texts The second half of the volume is an alphabetical tour of writers publications concepts genres movements and institutions with suggested readings for further research Entries focus primarily on fiction but also touch on drama and poetry Featured authors include Chris Abani Chinua Achebe Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Cyprian Ekwensi Uzodinma Chukuka Iweala Helen Oyeyemi and Wole Soyinka Topics range from the European origins of African literature and the West African diaspora to the development of an African personality the establishment of a regional publishing industry and the global literary marketplace Owomoyela also discusses such influences as the postwar emergence of Onitsha Market Literature the Mbari Club and the importance of the Noma Award Owomoyela's portrait points to the major impact of West African literature on the evolution of both African and world literatures in English Sure to become the definitive text for research in the field The Columbia Guide to West African Literature in English Since 1945 is a vital resource for newcomers as well as for advanced scholars seeking a deeper understanding of the region's rich literary heritage Africa since Independence Paul Nugent, 2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs Africa Beyond the Post-Colonial Alfred B. Zack-Williams, 2017-07-05 The poor economic performance of some African countries since independence has been a major concern to both African leaders and policy makers This volume which draws together contributions from academics based in Africa and its diaspora situates the continent within its historic and socio-political background from the 1960s the decade of independence through to its development outlook as the new millennium unfolds It examines a broad range of contemporary issues from development and culture to linguistics and is unique in identifying and examining issues that are common both to Africa and the diaspora Nigerian Literary Imagination and the Nationhood Project Toyin Falola, 2022-07-14 This book explores how modern Nigerian fiction is rooted in writers' understanding of their identity and perception of Nigeria as a country and home Surveying a broad range of authors and texts the book shows how these fictionalized representations of Nigeria reveal authentic perceptions of Nigeria's history and culture today Many of the lessons in these works of literature provide cautionary tales and critiques of Nigeria as well as an examination of the lasting impact of colonialism Furthermore the book presents the nation as both the framework and subject of its narrative By conducting literary analyses of Nigerian fiction with historical reference points this work demonstrates how Nigerian literature can convey profound themes and knowledge that resonates with audiences teaching Nigerians and non Nigerians about the colonial and postcolonial experience The chapters cover topics on nationhood women s writing postcolonial modernity and Nigerian literature in the digital age

How Strange the Change Marc Caplan, 2011-09-14 In this book Marc Caplan argues that the literatures of ostensibly marginal modern cultures are key to understanding modernism Caplan undertakes an unprecedented comparison of nineteenth century Yiddish literature and twentieth century Anglophone and Francophone African literature and reveals unexpected similarities between them These literatures were created under imperial regimes that brought with them processes of modernization that were already well advanced elsewhere Yiddish and African writers reacted to the liberating potential of modernity and the burdens of imperial authority by choosing similar narrative genres typically reminiscent of early modern European literatures the picaresque the pseudo autobiography satire and the Bildungsroman Both display analogous anxieties toward language caught as they were between imperial global languages and stigmatized native vernaculars and between traditions of writing and orality Through comparative readings of narratives by Reb Nakhman of Breslov Amos Tutuola Yisroel Aksenfeld Cheikh Hamidou Kane Isaac Meyer Dik Camara Laye Mendeleyev Soyinka Y Y Linetski and Ahmadou Karouma Caplan demonstrates that these literatures belated relationship to modernization suggests their potential to anticipate subsequent crises in the modernity and post modernity of metropolitan cultures This in turn leads him to propose a new theoretical model peripheral modernism which incorporates both a new understanding of periphery and center in modernity and a new methodology for comparative literary criticism and theory

The Politics of Biafra and Future of Nigeria Offodile, Chudi, 2016-11-25 The Politics of Biafra and Future of Nigeria is a reflection on the importance of history in addressing present realities and the future of coexistence of Nigeria s multi ethnic society It analyses the ideological struggles and conflict in Biafra during the war with Nigeria from 1967 1970 the impact of the war and the relevance of those struggles to the current agitations for a new state of Biafra In this historical and analytical work the author observes that nearly fifty years after the end of the Nigerian Biafra war in 1970 Nigeria is still grappling with the Biafran dilemma No matter its pretensions Nigeria will at some point have to reform its present pseudo federal arrangement to create a more inclusive equitable and proper federal structure If not the country will continue to face epileptic developmental thrusts militancy in the Niger Delta and a ruinous intensifying clamour for self determination by disadvantaged ethnic groups especially the Igbo The author argues that in the world in the era of technology inspired globalisation it is impossible to hold an unwilling people hostage in any country without negative consequences He makes a case for a new order in Nigeria expressing the view that Nigeria is caught in a vicious circle of graft and instability and nothing will change until Nigeria finds the proper foundational matrix to galvanise the talents and resources of the people and create a productive economy The End of Certainty Professor Stephen Chan, 2013-07-04 The End of Certainty is a magical realist book on world politics Stephen Chan takes the reader on a rollercoaster ride through how we can establish a new kind of international relations and construct a common future for the planet Chan argues that the certainties of singular traditions of philosophy have failed to help us understand power shifts and struggles in an endlessly diverse world Chan argues that fusing different strands of Western Eastern religious and philosophical thought is far more likely to help us move forward amidst uncertainty In doing so he takes us on a journey from the battlefields of Eritrea to the Twin Towers via the Book of Job Clausewitz Fanon and Wahabism You ll never think about international politics in quite the same way again

Minima Ethnographica Michael Jackson, 1998-08 The postmodern opposition between theory and lived reality has led in part to an anthropological turn to dialogic or reflexive approaches Michael Jackson claims these approaches are hardly radical as they still drift into such abstractions as society or culture His Minima Ethnographica proposes an existential anthropology that recognizes even abstract relationships as modalities of interpersonal life Written in the style of Theodor Adorno s Minima Moralia Jackson s work shows how general ideas are always anchored in particular social events and critical concerns Emphasizing the intersubjective encounter over objective descriptions of the whole historical and contemporary situation of a given people he illustrates the power and originality of existential anthropology through a series of vignettes from his fieldwork in Sierra Leone and Australia An award winning poet novelist and anthropologist Jackson offers a timely critique of conventions that dull our sense of the links between academic study and lived experience
