The Man at the Window Sam Chase, 2025-10-07 He thought he was just watching the neighbors Until the footage showed someone watching him Cal Becker has spent two years hiding in his late mother s house avoiding the world that destroyed his podcasting career His only human contact comes through his window documenting the perfect couple across the street with obsessive precision Mark and Elyse Whitaker wave every morning at 7 13 AM They jog for exactly twelve minutes They never miss garbage day Until the night Cal sees them digging a hole in their backyard at 2 47 AM By morning the hole is gone The surveillance footage is corrupted And Cal begins to suspect that the quiet suburban street he s been documenting might be documenting him back What follows is a descent into a world where nothing is what it seems where the line between observer and observed becomes terrifyingly blurred and where the past has teeth sharp enough to destroy the present Armed with his father s old tape recorder and a growing certainty that analog truth is the only truth you can trust Cal uncovers a conspiracy that reaches deeper than surveillance more personal than paranoia and more devastating than anything he covered in his podcasting days But the most chilling discovery isn t what the cameras captured it s the realization that some windows reflect more than they reveal and some watchers have been watching longer than you know A masterful psychological thriller that explores guilt isolation and the dangerous power of narrative Perfect for fans of Tana French Gillian Flynn and anyone who s ever wondered what their neighbors are really doing behind closed doors Unputdownable A masterclass in paranoid suspense that will make you question everything you think you know about surveillance memory and truth itself The most unsettling thriller I've read this year Cal Becker is an unforgettable narrator who will haunt you long after the final page Join Sam's newsletter at www.samchaseauthor.com

The Man Who Grinned in the Window Jason Crimp, 2024-05-11 The old house on the hill with its peeling paint and haunting aura has long been the subject of local legends Dubbed the Widow's Peak it is said to be haunted by a mysterious figure seen at night a man with a grotesque grin visible through the flickering candlelight Some believe it to be a ghost others a madman but the truth is far more sinister As a young journalist I set out to uncover the mystery delving into the life of Elias Thorne the man in the old photograph from 1888 His journals revealed a descent into madness fueled by his obsession with immortality His final experiment was a horrifying success transferring his consciousness into a grotesque vessel forever bound to the house My encounter with the grinning figure in the window left me fleeing in terror a chilling reminder of the dark consequences of tampering with nature's laws The Man Who Grinned in the Window is a spine tingling tale of ambition madness and the price of immortality
