and highlights the particular characteristics of structural processes of inclusion and exclusion in the construction and experience of communities in early modern England This engaging social history vividly captures what life would have been like in these communities arguing that even while early modern people were sure that the values of neighbourhood were dying they continued to evoke and reassert those values The Lives of the Lord Chancellors and Keepers of the Great Seal of Ireland James Roderick O'Flanagan,1870 The Administration of the County Palatine of Chester, 1442-1485 Dorothy J. Clayton,1990 The main aim of this book is to consider how and by whom the County Palatine of Chester was governed and administered during the later Middle Ages It aims to assess how effectively and efficiently the wheels of government operated in this area The study is based upon a detailed examination of the Palatine records for the years 1442 1485 during the reigns of Henry VI to Richard III
