The Sociology of the Artist in the Postmodern Era Marian Golka, 2013 This book examines the artistic profession which can be a challenge to characterize Various fields of artistic work are coupled with a range of different artistic attitudes and these in turn with a variety of social positions assumed by artists various historical conditions in which the profession functions as well as the diverse courses of artistic careers There are those who say that this profession is not an occupation but a vocation of an almost mystical nature Yet it is still tempting to examine the phenomenon of the artist at least to the extent that it is possible in light of the scarcity of historical data Series Development in Humanities Vol 8 A History of England, Volume 1 Douglas R. Bisson, Clayton Roberts, David Roberts, 2024-09-18 The seventh edition of this two volume narrative of English history draws on the most up to date primary and secondary research encouraging students to interpret the full range of England's social economic cultural and political past from its first inhabitants to the 2020s A History of England Volume 1 Prehistory to 1714 focuses on the key social economic cultural environmental intellectual and political events and themes of English history up to the early eighteenth century Topics include the Viking and Norman conquests of the eleventh century the creation of the monarchy the Reformation and the Glorious Revolution of 1688 The text discusses events in Scotland Wales and Ireland as they affected developments in England There is a new section dealing with the decline of belief in witchcraft This book is essential introductory reading for students of the history of England and Britain Handbook of Medieval Culture. Volume 1 Albrecht Classen, 2015-08-31 A follow up publication to the Handbook of Medieval Studies this new reference work turns to a different focus medieval culture Medieval research has grown tremendously in depth and breadth over the last decades Particularly our understanding of medieval culture of the basic living conditions and the specific value system prevalent at that time has considerably expanded to a point where we are in danger of no longer seeing the proverbial forest for the trees The present innovative handbook offers compact articles on essential topics ideals specific knowledge and concepts defining the medieval world as comprehensively as possible The topics covered in this new handbook pertain to issues such as love and marriage belief in God hell and the devil education lordship and servitude Christianity versus Judaism and Islam health medicine the rural world the rise of the urban class travel roads and bridges entertainment games and sport activities numbers measuring the education system the papacy saints the senses death and money Mary and the Church at Vatican II: The Untold Story of Lumen Gentium VIII Laurie Olsen, 2024-07-01 This masterful work by Dr Laurie Olsen uncovers the behind the scenes story of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium VIII based on unpublished records from the Vatican Apostolic Archives including internal memoranda private notes never before heard audio recordings of closed door sessions and more This monumental achievement of archival research provides a window into what really happened at Vatican II the council's inner workings and maneuvers to steer Lumen Gentium VIII in a direction that would profoundly affect marian devotion and the study of mariology from that moment on Memories of Cities Jonathan Charley, 2016-04-22 Memories of Cities is a collection of essays that explore different ways of writing about the political and economic history of the built environment Drawing upon fiction and non fiction and illustrated by original photographs the essays employ a variety of narrative forms including memoirs letters and diary entries They take the reader on a journey to cities such as Glasgow Paris

Moscow St Petersburg and Marseille laying bare the contradictions of capitalist architectural and urban development whilst simultaneously revealing alternative visions of how buildings and cities might be produced and organised Monthly Bulletin of Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston ,1901 The Arming of Europe and the Making of the First World War David G. Herrmann,2020-03-31 David Herrmann s work is the most complete study to date of how land based military power influenced international affairs during the series of diplomatic crises that led up to the First World War Instead of emphasizing the naval arms race which has been extensively studied before Herrmann draws on documentary research in military and state archives in Germany France Austria England and Italy to show the previously unexplored effects of changes in the strength of the European armies during this period Herrmann s work provides not only a contribution to debates about the causes of the war but also an account of how the European armies adopted the new weaponry of the twentieth century in the decade before 1914 including quick firing artillery machine guns motor transport and aircraft In a narrative account that runs from the beginning of a series of international crises in 1904 until the outbreak of the war Herrmann points to changes in the balance of military power to explain why the war began in 1914 instead of at some other time Russia was incapable of waging a European war in the aftermath of its defeat at the hands of Japan in 1904 5 but in 1912 when Russia appeared to be regaining its capacity to fight an unprecedented land armaments race began Consequently when the July crisis of 1914 developed the atmosphere of military competition made war a far more likely outcome than it would have been a decade earlier Themelios, Volume 39, Issue 1 D.
