The Marriage of Maria Braun Priscilla Layne, 2024-09-17 A new reading of Fassbinder's most popular film that highlights the roles of race and gender The Marriage of Maria Braun is the most popular film by the enfant terrible director Rainer Werner Fassbinder the leading exponent of the New German Cinema of the early sixties to early eighties It exemplifies his use and abuse of the genre of melodrama Set in the immediate postwar period and centered around a strong female protagonist Maria Braun 1978 was the first film in a trilogy that attempts to work through West Germany's fraught past and the legacy of Nazi Germany through the eyes of characters marginalized by their gender race sexuality or disability Maria attempts to navigate the poverty and sexism of the immediate postwar years by making her relationships with men as beneficial as possible In the end she discovers she has been a pawn in a power game between her husband long thought killed on the Eastern Front and her long time lover Bill an African American GI Yet Maria is also complicit in racism and white patriarchy a fact that scholarship on the film has barely registered In her new reading Priscilla Layne draws on archival research Critical Race Theory Black Feminist Thought and Critical Whiteness Studies to expand on the role of race and gender in the film

Relationship between Sound and Image in Rainer Werner Fassbinder's "Die Ehe der Maria Braun" Laura Smith, 2015-04-09 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject German Studies Miscellaneous grade 78 University of Birmingham course BA Modern Languages language English abstract The collision of sound and image in Fassbinder's Die Ehe der Maria Braun provides an on screen representation of the relationship between public and private life in the film The contrast created by this collision is a distancing technique which encourages the audience to consider the implications of ignoring the political public world at the time of the Wirtschaftswunder and in their own time This essay aims to demonstrate the way in which Fassbinder achieves this through his manipulation of sound and image specifically examining the open and closing credits the radio broadcasts of Konrad Adenauer's speeches Oswald's piano playing and the final radio broadcast concerning the 1954 World Cup From Hitler to Heimat Anton Kaes, 1989 Examines changing attitudes among Germans as evident in films of the modern German era leading away from guilt and atonement and seeking national identity The Unmaking of Fascist Aesthetics Kriss Ravetto, 2001 In works by filmmakers from Bertolucci to Spielberg debauched images of Nazi and fascist eroticism symbols of violence and immorality often bear an uncanny resemblance to the images and symbols once used by the fascists themselves to demarcate racial sexual and political others This book exposes the madness inherent in such a course which attests to the impossibility of disengaging visual and rhetorical constructions from political ideological and moral codes Kriss Ravetto argues that contemporary discourses using such devices actually continue unacknowledged rhetorical moral and visual analogies of the past Against postwar fictional and historical accounts of World War II in which generic images of evil characterize the nazi and the fascist Ravetto sets the more complex approach of such filmmakers as Pier Paolo Pasolini Liliana Cavani and Lina Wertmuller Her book asks us to think deeply about what it means to say that we have conquered fascism when the aesthetics of fascism still describe and determine how we look at political figures and global events Book jacket      Understanding Rainer Werner Fassbinder Wallace Steadman Watson,1996 Watson s draws on a wide assortment of Fassbinder interviews many of which are not available in English and on theoretical and critical approaches employed in the Frankfurt School performance and reception theories gay and lesbian film theory and studies of melodrama and camp Watson also incorporates his own interviews with Fassbinder s mother and with the woman who served as Fassbinder s film editor and companion during the final four years of his life A comprehensive balanced study Understanding Rainer Werner Fassbinder also features an annotated bibliography extensive notes a filmography of Fassbinder s works and a listing of films and television programs that examine Fassbinder and his achievements Back cover

The Collapse of the Conventional Jaimey Fisher,Brad Prager,2010 Bringing together many of the most important scholars of German film this hugely significant collection offers a fascinating and subtle account of the contours of the political in the post Wall cinematic landscape Paul Cooke professor of German cultural studies in the School of Modern Languages and Cultures University of Leeds Book Jacket      The BRD Trilogy ,1978      Feminism, Film, Fascism Susan E. Linville,1998 German society s inability and or refusal to come to terms with its Nazi past has been analyzed in many cultural works including the well known books Society without the Father and The Inability to Mourn In this pathfinding study Susan Linville challenges the accepted wisdom of these books by focusing on a cultural realm in which mourning for the Nazi past and opposing the patriarchal and authoritarian nature of postwar German culture are central concerns namely women s feminist auto biographical films of the 1970s and 1980s After a broad survey of feminist theory Linville analyzes five important films that reflect back on the Third Reich through the experiences of women of different ages Marianne Rosenbaum s Peppermint Peace Helma Sanders Brahms s Germany Pale Mother Jutta Br ckner s Hunger Years Margarethe von Trotta s Marianne and Juliane and Jeanine Meerapfel s Malou By juxtaposing these films with the accepted theories on German culture Linville offers a fresh appraisal not only of the films importance but especially of their challenge to misogynist interpretations of the German failure to grieve for the horrors of its Nazi past      When Heimat Meets Hollywood Christine Haase,2007 Contemporary connections between German directors and Hollywood and their implications for German American and transnational film The film histories of Germany and the United States have long been seen as intertwined but scholarship has focused on migr works of the 1930s and 1940s on links between Weimar film and American film noir and on the conflictedrelationship between directors of the New German Cinema and Hollywood Recently German film studies has begun reexamining the interconnection of the two film cultures and focusing on the internationalism of German cinema but little research has been done on contemporary German directors involvement in American cinema a gap in scholarship that this book fills The study offers ways of understanding current German cinematic engagement with America and different directorial responses to the hegemonic pressures of Hollywood It delineates the historical trajectory of German American film relations in the 20th century then analyzes the careers and works of four German born directors who have significant ties with American cinema Wolfgang Petersen Roland Emmerich Percy Adlon and Tom Tykwer A series of close readings of their productions isolates the cinematic practices and strategies with which these filmmakers negotiate the different national cultural and cinematic paradigms they traverse The book analyzes constructions of national cultural identity probes the boundaries of national cinemas and expands our understanding of emerging hybrid film cultures It is a contribution to German film studies and to the emerging field of transnational film studies Christine Haase is Associate Professor of German at the University of Georgia
