Granville-Barker,1911 The Madras House, a Comedy in Four Acts Granville Barker,2017-11-28 Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non fiction literature that has stood the test of time The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text photographs or missing pages It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing s books will be delighted with their purchase Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection repairing or if necessary rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing s titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand however they may also be purchased in bulk Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates The Madras House Harley Granville-Barker,1926 The Era Almanack, Dramatic & Musical

Edward Ledger,1911 The Madras House Granville Barker,2015-07-18 Excerpt from The Madras House A Comedy in Four Acts The Huxtables live at Denmark Hill for Mr Huxtable is the surviving partner in the well known Peckham drapery establishment of Roberts its exterior the builder said one might describe as of a Free Queen Anne Treatment to which Mr Huxtable rejoined after blinking at the red brick spotted with stone ornament that After all it was inside they were going to live you know Through the stained grained front door rattling with coloured glass one reaches the hall needlessly narrow needlessly dark but with its black and white tessellated pavement making for cleanliness On the left is the stained and grained staircase with its Brussels carpet and twisted brass stair rods on the right the drawing room The drawing room can hardly be said to express the personality of Mr Huxtable The foundations of its furnishings are in the taste of Mrs Huxtable For fifteen years or so additions to this family museum have been disputed into their place by the six Miss Huxtables Laura aged thirty nine Minnie Clara Julia Emma Jane aged twenty six About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Acts of Desire Sos

Eltis,2013-04-18 From seduced maidens to adulterous wives bigamists courtesans kept women and streetwalkers the so called fallen woman was a ubiquitous and enduring figure on the Victorian and Edwardian stage Acts of Desire traces the theatrical representation of illicit female sexuality from early nineteenth century melodramas through sensation dramas Ibsenite sex problem plays and suffrage dramas to early social realism and the well made plays of Pinero Jones Maugham and Coward This study reveals and analyses enduring plot lines and tropes that continue to influence contemporary theatre and film Women s illicit desires became a theatrical focus for anxieties and debates surrounding gender roles women s rights sexual morality class conflict economics eugenics and female employment The theatre played a central role in both establishing and challenging sexual norms and many playwrights exploited the ambiguities and implications of performance to stage disruptive spectacles of female desire agency energy and resourcefulness using ingenuity and skill to evade the control of that ever watchful state censor the Lord Chamberlain Covering an astonishing range of theatrical social literary and political texts this study challenges the currency and validity of the long established critical term the fallen woman and establishes the centrality of the theatre to cultural and sexual debates throughout the period Acts of Desire encompasses published and unpublished plays archival material censorship records and contemporary reviews to reveal the surprising continuities complex debates covert meanings and exuberant spectacles which marked the history of theatrical representations of female sexuality Engaging with popular and high art performances this study also reveals the vital connections between theatre and its sister arts tracing the exchange of influences between Victorian drama narrative painting and the novel and showing theatre to be a crucial but neglected element in the cultural history of women s sexuality
