Flamholtz, Yvonne Randle, 2016-03-02 Building Family Business Champions provides a theoretically sound and practical framework for understanding the challenges that family businesses face Drawing on three decades of consulting with more than 250 companies their own experience running a family owned firm and sound research Eric G Flamholtz and Yvonne Randle explain that the success of these companies hinges upon the dual management of family functionality and the company s infrastructure They present a set of managerial tools for planning structuring the business measuring performance and managing culture After laying this groundwork they attend to issues that uniquely pertain to these companies such as succession and the challenges of familial dysfunction Finally the book offers a set of short self assessments that can be used in any family business Richly illustrated with stories of companies at various stages of growth from around the globe this book provides a comprehensive guide for building businesses that thrive from generation to generation The Beer Monopoly Ina Verstl, Ernst Faltermeier, 2016-11-09 How could a small Belgian brewer become the world s largest brewing group within two decades Interbrew s transformation into InBev and then into Anheuser Busch InBev AB InBev is emblematic of the race for unchallenged market domination between the world s four biggest brewing companies The Beer Monopoly explores how this happened and examines the economic drivers behind globalisation AB InBev s takeover of SABMiller the world s number one and two brewers respectively closes an amazing epoch in beer history This book charts the fascinating rise of these two brewing giants as they showed that dealmaking provided a faster path to profit growth than any sales hike could ever accomplish The importance of deals those made and those missed is also visible in the track record of Heineken and Carlsberg the brewers on the next two rungs of the global ladder While all of these brewers pursued the goal of building empires each had different reasons and faced a variety of obstacles along the way Sharing a keen interest in the brewing industry not to mention a passion beer two economists Ina Verstl and Ernst Faltermeier have provided a timely out of the box analysis of globalisation The Encyclopedia of the Industrial Revolution in World History Kenneth E.
