The Making Of Iraq 1900 1963 Capital Power And Ideology:

The Making of Iraq, 1900-1963 Samira Haj, 1997-02-13 This book explores several major developmental problems as they manifested themselves in Iraq It also focuses on the formation of capital in modern Iraq and addresses four theoretical categories Power, Resistance, Ideology and the State Ali M. Ansari, T. B. Dodge, Daniel Neep, Toby Dodge, 2025-08-05 A wide ranging innovative and essential exploration of the politics of today's Middle East Power Resistance Ideology and the State Charles Tripp and the Comparative Politics of the Middle East seeks to present a new understanding of a region of unprecedented volatility where postcolonial projects of state driven development have now expired old ruling elites have been delegitimized and political Islam discredited The work of Charles Tripp professor at the School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS for over three decades has shaped a distinct approach to the study of Middle East politics with an analytical sensibility that is empirically rich theoretically insightful and historically sensitive This volume brings together contributions from ten political scientists and historians from across Europe the United States and the Middle East each of which takes Tripp's work as an intellectual point of departure for studying Middle East politics Against this background the contributors explore the contemporary developments that have emerged to fill the intellectual and material shortcomings created by the systemic failures of economics and politics in the region The contributions focus on four themes that are central to an understanding of Middle East politics power resistance ideology and the state to examine political trends in cases ranging from Iran and Iraq to Jordan Lebanon and Syria Each chapter combines extensive field research and a knowledge of regional politics with methodological and philosophical reflexivity to produce a collection of papers at the cutting edge of contemporary Middle East Studies Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida s anti Shi i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists The Link Louis

Fairmont,2008-12-04 This book provides new evidence that there was a direct operational link between Saddam Hussein and al Qaida The Link is primarily sourced from the Pentagon Report on Saddam that was released March 2008 The Pentagon report includes some of the actual sourced Iraqi documents memos and transcripts retrieved by the U S Military during Operation Iraqi Freedom The Link provides new evidence regarding Saddam and al Qaida were working together since 1990 al Qaida was located in Iraq since 1995 Saddam in his own words says he gave the order for the 1993 World Trade Center attack An Iraqi agent met with a 9 11 hijacker prior to the 9 11 attack WMDs were in Iraq up until Operation Iraqi Freedom Read the truth that has been suppressed until now This release is a paperback sized 6 x 9 and is sized for distribution on Amazon An Analysis of Hanna Batatu's The Old Social Classes and the Revolutionary Movements of Iraq Dale J.

Stahl,2018-02-21 How do you solve a problem like understanding Iraq For Hanna Batatu the solution to this conundrum lay in generating alternative possibilities that effectively side stepped the conventional wisdom of the time Historians had long held that Iraq like other artificial creations of ex colonial European powers who drew lines onto the world map that ignored longstanding tribal ethnic and religious ties was best understood by delving into its political and religious history Batatu used the problem solving skills of asking productive questions and generating alternative possibilities to argue that Iraq s history was better understood through the lens of a Marxist analysis focused on socio economic history The Old Social Classes concludes that the divisions present in Iraq and exposed by the revolutionary movements of the 1950s are those characterized by the struggle for control over property and the means of production Additionally Batatu sought to establish that the most important political movements of the time notably the nationalist Ba athists and the pan Arab Free Officers Movement had their origins in a homegrown communist ideology inspired by local conditions and local inequality By posing new questions and by undertaking a vast amount of research in primary sources a rarity in the history of this region Batatu was able to produce a strong new solution to a longstanding historiographical puzzle Demodernization Yakov Minakov, Mikhail Rabkin,2018-07-31 Medical doctors driving taxis architects selling beer on street corners scientific institutes closed down amid rusting carcasses of industrial plants these images became common at the turn of the 21st century in many once modern civilized countries In quite a few of them long time neighbours came to kill each other apparently motivated by the newly discovered differences of religion language or origin Civil nationalism gave way to tribal ethnic and confessional conflict Rational arguments of geopolitical nature have been replaced by claims of self righteousness and moral superiority These snapshots are not random They are manifestations of a phenomenon called demodernization that can be observed from the banks of the Neva to the banks of the Euphrates from the deserts of Central Asia to the English countryside and all the way to the city of Detroit Demodernization is a growing trend today but it also has a history Seventeen scholars including historians philosophers sociologists and archaeologists offer their well substantiated views of demodernization The book is divided into three parts dedicated to conceptual debates as well as historical and contemporary cases It book provides a wealth of empirical materials and conceptual insights that provide a multi faceted approach to demodernization

The Logistics and Politics of the British Campaigns in the Middle East, 1914-22 Kristian Coates Ulrichsen, 2010-10-14 An examination of how the logistical demands of the British military campaigns in Palestine and Mesopotamia led to a more intrusive and authoritarian form of imperial control in 1917 18 This early example of Western military intervention in the Middle East provoked a localized backlash in 1919 20 whose effects continue to be felt today

The Iraqi Revolution of 1958 Juan Romero, 2011 In the early hours of July 14 1958 Iraqi military officers overthrew the British installed Iraqi monarchy The Free Officers coup initiated an era of military and subsequently Ba thist rule that only ended with the U S led invasion of Iraq in 2003 Historians are at variance over the nature of what is called the Iraqi Revolution in the Arab world Some scholars argue that the overthrow was merely a coup d Ztat orchestrated by the Free Officers Movement Other analysts contend that the overthrow constituted a real revolution Very few works if any provide a detailed analysis in support of the revolutionary argument Dr Romero s book advances the argument that the events of July 14 simultaneously constituted a coup and a revolution for a number of reasons including military involvement popular participation and policies that radically departed from those of the previous regime

Nationalism and Liberal Thought in the Arab East Christoph Schumann, 2010-02-25 This book explores the complex relationship between nationalism and liberal thought in the Arab East during the first half of the twentieth century Examining this formative period through reformist Islam Arab secularism and Arab literature the book situates major shifts in the political ideologies and practices of Arab liberals within a historical context Contributions from renowned scholars in the field show how rather than fundamentally contradicting each other these two schools of thought are closely linked Many key demands of liberalism most notably constitutionalism the rule of law individual rights and popular participation have been central to the nationalist agenda while other issues have proven more controversial inter confessional tolerance secularism and the goals of state sponsored education Although a strong nation state was pivotal to the nationalist imagination during most of the twentieth century a powerful critique of unchecked state power took shape as Arab countries experienced a half century of authoritarian government In analyzing these issues the chapters demonstrate how the rise and fall of liberalism across the region was not determined solely by religion or

The Shi'ites of Lebanon Rula Jurdi Abisaab, Malek Abisaab, 2014-12-09 The complex history of Lebanese Shi'ites has traditionally been portrayed as rooted in religious and sectarian forces The Abisaabs uncover a more nuanced account in which colonialism the modern state social class and provincial politics profoundly shaped Shi'i society The authors trace the sociopolitical economic and intellectual transformation of the Shi'ites of Lebanon from 1920 during the French colonial period until the late twentieth century They shed light on the relationship of contemporary Islamic militancy with traditions of religious modernism and leftism in both Lebanon and Iraq Analyzing the interaction between sacred and secular features of modern Shi'ite society the authors clearly follow the group's turn toward religious revolution and away from secular activism This book transforms our understanding of twentieth century Lebanese history and demonstrates how the rise of Hizbullah was conditioned by Shi'ites consistent marginalization and neglect by the Lebanese state

Shop Floor Culture and Politics in Egypt

Samer S. Shehata, 2009-10-05 In Shop Floor Culture and Politics in Egypt Samer S Shehata provides us with a unique and detailed ethnographic portrait of life within two large textile factories in Alexandria Egypt Working for nearly a year as a winding machine operator provided Shehata with unprecedented access to workers at the point of production and the activities of the work hall He argues that the social organization of production in the factories including company rules and procedures hierarchy and relations of authority and shop floor culture profoundly shape what it means to be a worker and how this identity is understood Shehata reveals how economic relations inside the factory are simultaneously relations of significance and meaning and how the production of wool and cotton textiles is at the same time the production of categories of identity patterns of human interaction and understandings of the self and others Poverty and Charity in Middle Eastern Contexts Michael Bonner, Mine Ener, Amy Singer, 2012-02-01 Offering insights and analysis in a field that has only recently come into existence this book explores the ideals and institutions through which Middle Eastern societies from the rise of Islam in the seventh century C E to the present day have confronted poverty and the poor By introducing new sources and presenting familiar ones with new questions the contributors examine ideas about poverty and the poor ideals and practices of charity and state and private initiatives of poor relief over this extensive time span They avoid easy generalizations about Islam and the Middle East as they seek to set the ideals and practices in comparative perspective The Striking Cabbies of Cairo and Other Stories John T. Chalcraft, 2012-02-01 This book charts new directions in Egyptian social history providing the first systematic account of adaptation and protest among crafts and service workers in Egypt in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Using a wealth of new sources John T Chalcraft challenges conventional notions of craft stagnation and decline by recovering the largely unknown histories of crafts workers restructuring in the face of world economic integration and their petitions demonstrations and strike action at a time of state building and colonial rule Chalcraft demonstrates the economic importance of petty producers and service providers and tells the story of widespread collective assertion couched in new discourses of citizenship and nationalism He also gives a new interpretation of the end of the guilds in Egypt and addresses larger debates about unevenness under capitalism Family History in the Middle East Beshara Doumani, 2012-02-01 Despite the constant refrain that family is the most important social institution in Middle Eastern societies only recently has it become the focus for rethinking the modern history of the Middle East This book introduces exciting new findings by historians anthropologists and historical demographers that challenge pervasive assumptions about family made in the past Using specific case studies based on original archival research and fieldwork the contributors focus on the interplay between micro and macro processes of change and bridge the gap between materialist and discursive frameworks of analysis They reveal the flexibility and dynamism of family life and show the complex juxtaposition of different rhythms of time individual time family time historical time These findings interface directly with and demonstrate the need for a critical reassessment of current debates on gender modernity and Islam A Neighborhood in
