The Making Of Love:

The Making of Love Steve Biddulph, Shaaron Biddulph, 2001 Love starts out as a blessing even a fluke but it continues as an achievement Steve and Shaaron Biddulph Steve and Shaaron Biddulph's classic book on how to find and grow the love between a man and a woman has been credited with saving the marriages of couples across the globe Written in their earthy honest and warm style and revised and updated for the twenty first century it includes How to recognise and balance the levels of connection loving lust and liking in your relationship How commitment can be built up in small safe steps How having children helps you grow up Getting through the crises that every couple has The changes that children bring and how to make these a plus A long term loving relationship is an achievement a craft and it can take years to develop The Making of Love is unique in that it explores the issues that couples face from both the male and female point of view and illustrates these through moving stories from people's lives The Art of Making Love, 1676 Making Love Modern Nina

Miller, 1999-01-21 In the teens and twenties New York was home to a rich variety of literary subcultures Within these intermingled worlds gender lines and other boundaries were crossed in ways hardly imaginable in previous decades Among the bohemians of Greenwich Village the sophisticates of the Algonquin Round Table and the literati of the Harlem Renaissance certain women found fresh powerful voices through which to speak and write Edna St Vincent Millay and Dorothy Parker are now best remembered for their colorful lives Genevieve Taggard Gwendolyn Bennett and Helene Johnson are hardly remembered at all Yet each made a serious literary contribution to the meaning of modern femininity relationship and selfhood Making Love Modern uncovers the deep historical sensitivity and interest of these women's love poetry Placing their work in the context of subcultures nested within national culture Nina Miller explores the tensions that make this literature so rewarding for contemporary readers A poetry of intimate expression it also functioned powerfully as public assertion The writers themselves were high profile embodiments of femininity the local representatives of New Womanhood within their male centered subcultural worlds Making Love Modern captures the literary lives of these women as well as the complex subcultures they inhabited Harlem the Village and glamorous Midtown In the end the book is a much a study of modernist New York as of women's love poetry during modernism Making Love with the Land Joshua

Whitehead, 2024-06-18 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The boundary and genre bending non fiction collection from the Giller longlisted GG shortlisted and Canada Reads winning author of Jonny Appleseed The land and its elements are my aunties calling me home into that centre point which is a nowhere by which I mean a place that English has no words for is an everywhere is a bingo hall is a fourth plane is an ocean Making Love with the Land is a startling challenging uncompromising look at what it means to live as an Indigenous person in the rupture between identities In these ten unique heart piercing non fiction pieces award winning writer Joshua Whitehead illuminates the complex moment we're living through now in which Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples are navigating new and old ideas about the land He asks What is our relationship and responsibility towards it And how has the land shaped ideas histories words our very bodies Intellectually thrilling and emotionally captivating this book is a love song for the world and for the library of stories to be found where body meets land waiting to be unearthed and summoned into word

Making Love in the Twelfth Century, 2016-04-29 New sparkling translations of the Letters of Two Lovers the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Nine hundred years ago in Paris a teacher and his brilliant female student fell in love and chronicled their affair in a passionate correspondence Their 116 surviving letters some whole and some fragmentary are composed in eloquent highly rhetorical Latin Since their discovery in the late twentieth century the Letters of Two Lovers have aroused much attention because of their extreme rarity They constitute the longest correspondence by far between any two persons from the entire Middle Ages and they are private rather than institutional which means that according to all we know about the transmission of medieval letters they should not have survived at all Adding to their mystery the letters are copied anonymously in a single late fifteenth century manuscript although their style and range of reference place them squarely in the early twelfth century Can this collection of correspondence be the previously lost love letters of Abelard and Heloise And even if not what does it tell us about the lived experience of love in the twelfth century Barbara Newman contends that these teacher student exchanges bear witness to a culture that linked Latin pedagogy with the practice of ennobling love and the cult of friendship during a relatively brief period when women played an active part in that world Newman presents a new translation of these extraordinary letters along with a full commentary and two extended essays that parse their literary and intellectual contexts and chart the course of the doomed affair Included too are two other sets of twelfth century love epistles the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Taken together they constitute a stunning contribution to the study of the history of emotions by one of our most prominent medievalists
