The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-22 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part The Making of South East Asia George Cœdès, 1966 The Making of Southeast Asian Nations Leo Survadinata, 2015 The idea of the nation is a Western concept which has been applied to Southeast Asia It is a project which has been in progress since the last century but is still incomplete Various theoretical frameworks which are associated with nation and nation building in the Southeast Asian region have been briefly dealt with The book aims to examine the making of the nations in Southeast Asia using both historical and political science approaches Concepts related to nations such as ethnicity state indigenism and citizenship have also been analysed in the Southeast Asian context Specific examples of nation building in five major Southeast Asian countries are presented Problems and prospects of Southeast Asia s nation building and citizenship building in the era of globalisation are also discussed Making Of Southeast Asian Nations, The: State, Ethnicity, Indigenism And Citizenship Leo Survadinata, 2014-11-21 The idea of the nation is a Western concept which has been applied to Southeast Asia It is a project which has been in progress since the last century but is still incomplete Various theoretical frameworks which are associated with nation and nation building in the Southeast Asian region have been briefly dealt with The book aims to examine the making of the nations in Southeast Asia using both historical and political science approaches Concepts related to nation such as ethnicity state indigenism and citizenship have also been analysed in the Southeast Asian context Specific examples of nation building in five major Southeast Asian countries are presented Problems and prospects of Southeast Asia's nation building and citizenship building in the era of globalisation are also discussed The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 1966 The Making of Southeast Asia George Coedès, George Cœdès, 1983 The Making of South East Asia George Coedes,1972 Civilizations in Embrace Amitav Acharya, 2013 This study revisits one of the most extensive examples of the spread of ideas in the history of civilization the diffusion of Indian religious and political ideas to Southeast Asia before the advent of Islam and European colonialism Hindu and Buddhist concepts and symbols of kingship and statecraft helped to legitimize Southeast Asian rulers and transform the political institutions and authority of Southeast Asia But the process of this diffusion was not accompanied by imperialism political hegemony or colonization as conventionally understood This book investigates different explanations of the spread of Indian ideas offered by scholars including why and how it occurred and what were its key political and institutional outcomes It challenges the view that strategic competition is a recurring phenomenon when civilizations The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 1966 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). ASEAN and Regional Order Amitav Acharya, 2021-05-30 Founded in 1967 the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN has emerged as one of the most successful regional organizations in the world This book discusses the future of ASEAN against a backdrop of a growing US China rivalry and the security implications of COVID 19 Chapters in this book move through a history of ASEAN and its multilateral institutions including the ASEAN Regional Forum ARF and the East Asia Summit EAS featuring rare photographic material to contextualize both recent developments in regional security and projections for ASEAN s prospects Key concepts and terms are unpacked throughout with the chapters focusing on rapidly changing international and regional environments economic insecurities such as trade conflicts human rights and ASEAN identity and providing extensive analysis of the factors challenging the principle ASEAN Centrality and the Indo Pacific security architecture The concept of security community frames this book despite being subject to change if intraregional discord and institutional stagnation take hold As a discussion of the role and future of ASEAN in a pivotal period of world history ASEAN and Regional Order will prove vital to both students and scholars of international relations regional organizations and Asian studies more broadly Southeast Asia Views the United States Ann Marie Murphy, 2025-01-28 This book is a comprehensive study of Southeast Asian views of their respective countries foreign policies towards the United States The Southeast Asian contributors are all individuals who bridge both academia and foreign policy circles in their countries in Southeast Asia the Indo Pacific more broadly and globally There is a dearth of theoretically informed empirically rich literature on the foreign policies of Southeast Asian states This volume with eight chapters written by some of Southeast Asia's leading analysts is therefore important timely and fills a large gap in the literature Culture and Political-military The Making of a New Southeast Asia - Our Regional Vision Peter Ho,1991 Behavior Joel Larus, 1979
