The Man Made World Of Our Androcentric Culture:

The Man-Made World Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2011-01-01 Early feminist author and advocate Charlotte Perkins Gilman is today best remembered for the haunting short story The Yellow Wallpaper which recounts the female protagonist's descent into madness. In addition to her prodigious body of fictional work, Gilman wrote a great deal of non-fiction including scholarly and persuasive essays about equality and the female condition. This long-form essay details the misogyny that was pervasive in Western culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The Man-Made World, Or, Our Androcentric Culture Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2020-01-11 In this probing critique of androcentric culture, pioneering feminist Charlotte Perkins Gilman analyzes with wit and insight the many negative effects of male domination not only on women in particular but on the welfare of the human race as a whole. Society's long history of male hegemony and female subservience has not enhanced the natural qualities of the human race but rather distorted them, says Gilman, as can be seen in many of society's institutions. In separate chapters, she discusses family, art, literature, games, and sports, ethics, and religion, education, fashion, law, and government, crime and punishment, politics, and warfare, and industry and economics. In each case, she shows how the domineering male influence has caused grievous problems. The Man-Made World Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2016-12-10 Published in 1911, this book is a critique of our androcentric culture. Pioneering feminist Charlotte Perkins Gilman analyzes the issues with a society where men and maleness is considered to be the normality. Our society is too focused on what's womanly and what's manly. We divide the world into these categories instead of what's most important: our humanness, which distinguishes us from other creatures. The society's long history of male hegemony and female subordination has not enhanced the natural qualities of the human race but has distorted them, Gilman says, as can be seen in many of the institutions of society. In separate chapters, he discusses family, art, literature, games, and sports, ethics, and religion, education, fashion, law, and government, crime and punishment, politics, and war, and industry and the economy. In each case, she shows how the dominant male influence has caused serious problems. Charlotte Perkins Gilman. Charlotte Anna Perkins. Hartford, Connecticut. July 3, 1860. Pasadena, California.
