Scull, 2019-09-11 Until surprisingly recently the history of the Irish Catholic Church during the Northern Irish Troubles was written by Irish priests and bishops and was commemorative rather than analytical This study uses the Troubles as a case study to evaluate the role of the Catholic Church in mediating conflict During the Troubles these priests and bishops often worked behind the scenes acting as go betweens for the British government and republican paramilitaries to bring about a peaceful solution However this study also looks more broadly at the actions of the American Irish and English Catholic Churches as well as that of the Vatican to uncover the full impact of the Church on the conflict This critical analysis of previously neglected state Irish and English Catholic Church archival material changes our perspective on the role of a religious institution in a modern conflict Acts of Union Desmond Bell, 1990-10-05 Using ethnographic methods the author explores the subcultural world of young Loyalists and examines the role of youth cultural practices in the reproduction of ethnic identity and in the reconstruction of tradition in Irish society The United Kingdom: Northern Ireland, Scotland, and Wales Britannica Educational Publishing, 2013-06-01 Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales storied lands that have sparked the global imagination through their legends and centuries old traditions often seem to be eclipsed by the neighboring England While there are many similarities between them each is culturally distinct with languages traditions and identities not shared by the others But even as Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales each work to safeguard their unique heritages they have also worked together and with England despite the often tense relationships between them that have at times made coexistence difficult and independence movements frequent The histories peoples and traditions of these remarkable lands are the subjects of this comprehensive volume Report on Military Sanitation in the Presidency of Madras Madras (India : Presidency).
