butlers and chauffeurs with a roving eye Marriage is the only escape but with one evening off a week Margaret has no time to lose Between Perce the bus conductor who brings his mother on dates and Mr Hailsham the fishmonger who looks and smells a bit like his wares her initial prospects are hardly the stuff of dreams But then she meets Albert a butcher boy turned milkman Could he be the perfect husband And can she make the perfect wife when as she soon discovers years spent serving others don't prepare you for managing your own life Soon Margaret begins to wonder how can someone like her ever improve their station Told with her trademark wit and warmth Climbing the Stairs is a unique sharp eyed tale of a time when the idea of masters and servants began to lose its sway and of a remarkable woman who grasped the opportunities of this brave new world with both hands

Below Stairs Margaret Powell, 2011 Arriving at the great houses of 1920s London fifteen year old Margaret's life in service was about to begin As a kitchen maid the lowest of the low she entered an entirely new world one of stoves to be blacked vegetables to be scrubbed mistresses to be appeased and even bootlaces to be ironed Work started at 5.30am and went on until after dark It was a far cry from her childhood on the beaches of Hove where money and food were scarce but warmth and laughter never were Yet from the gentleman with a penchant for stroking the housemaids curlers to raucous tea dances with errand boys to the heartbreaking story of Agnes the pregnant under parlourmaid fired for being seduced by her mistress nephew Margaret's tales of her time in service are told with wit warmth and a sharp eye for the prejudices of her situation Brilliantly evoking the long vanished world of masters and servants Below Stairs is the remarkable true story of an indomitable woman who though her position was lowly never stopped aiming high
