The Religious Lives of Older Laywomen Abby Day, 2017. The Religious Lives of Older Laywomen draws on ethnographic fieldwork, cross cultural comparisons and relevant theories exploring the beliefs, identities and practices of Generation A Anglican laywomen born in the 1920s and 1930s. Now in their 70s, 80s and 90s they are often described as the backbone of the Church and likely its final active generation. The prevalence of laywomen in mainstream Christian congregations is a widely accepted phenomenon that will cause little surprise amongst the research community or Christian adherents. What is surprising is that we know so little about them. Generation A laywomen have remained largely invisible in previous work on institutional religion in Euro American countries, particularly as the focus on religion and gender has turned to youth, sexuality and priesthood. Female Christian Generation A is on the cusp of a catastrophic decline in mainstream Christianity that accelerated during the post war post 1945 age. The age profile of mainstream Christianity represents an increasingly aging pattern with Generation A not being replaced by their children or grandchildren, the Baby Boomers and generations X, Y and Z. Generation A is irreplaceable and unique. Generation shares specific values, beliefs, behaviors and orientations, therefore when this generation finally disappears within the next five to 10 years, their knowledge, insights and experiences will be lost forever. Abby Day both documents and interprets their religious lives and what we can learn about them and more widely about contemporary Christianity and its future. The Christian Advocate, 1900.
