Suzanne Lacy

Sharon Irish, Suzanne Lacy, Often controversial and sometimes even shocking to audiences the work of California based artist Suzanne Lacy has challenged viewers and participants with personal accounts of traumatic events settings that require people to assume uncomfortable positions multisensory productions that evoke emotional as well as intellectual responses and even flayed lambs and beef kidneys Lacy has experimented with ways to claim the power of mass media to use women's consciousness raising groups as a performance structure and to connect her projects to lived experiences The body and large groups of bodies are the locations for her lifelike art revealing the aesthetics of relationships among people In this critical examination of Suzanne Lacy Sharon Irish surveys Lacy's art from 1972 to the present demonstrating the pivotal roles that Lacy has had in public art feminist theory and community organizing Lacy initially used her own body or animal organs to visually depict psychological states or social conditions in photographs collages and installations In the late 1970s she turned to organizing large groups of people into art events including her most famous work The Crystal Quilt a 1987 performance broadcast live on PBS and featuring hundreds of women in Minneapolis and pioneered a new genre of public art Irish investigates the spaces between art and life self and other and the body and physical structures in Lacy's multifaceted artistic projects showing how throughout her influential career Lacy has created art that resists racism promotes feminism and explores challenging human relationships

The Diary of Anaïs Nin, 1955-1966 Anaïs Nin, 2018-06-01 The sixth volume of the diary of one of the most extraordinary and unconventional writers of the twentieth century The New York Times Book Review Anaïs Nin continues one of the most remarkable diaries in the history of letters with this volume covering more than a decade of her midcentury life Los Angeles Times She debates the use of drugs versus the artist's imagination portrays many famous people in the arts and recounts her visits to Sweden the Brussels World's Fair Paris and Venice Nin looks at life love and art with a blend of gentility and acuity that is rare in contemporary writing John Barkham Reviews Edited and with a preface by Gunther Stuhlmann

The Woman Patient Malkah Notman, 2013-11-11 This volume presents the knowledge views and experiences of experts in the fields of health care that are particularly important to women Not all of the authors agree on all of the issues but all share the same concerns about women's health and recognize the importance of providing information to enable women to become active participants in the health care partnership The idea for the book evolved from our own work in the field of women's health care The positive responses we received to several papers and presentations based on our experiences and addressed to patients physicians and other health care professionals indicated that there is a growing need for open discussion of women's health care issues as well as a need for developing and implementing new and better ways of dealing with these issues We were further motivated by the repeated failure of the health care community to integrate new insights and information that frequently contradict older established beliefs and practices into current health planning education and practice

Bloodstained Dreams: Daughters of Shadow Mike T. Whitman, 2025-10-13 Vengeance is born in the crypt Hunger is the only prayer that remains Kayla Vale should have died with her family Instead she rose from the grave remade in blood and broken by the vampire who murdered everything she loved For two long years she has endured torment in the dark her only companions the ache of hunger and the memory of her own betrayal Now abandoned and left to rot Kayla claws her way back into the night But freedom carries its own curse Whispers of ancient daughters stir in the shadows fallen angels demons and forgotten goddesses who offer her strength in exchange for the last fragments of her soul Eisheth Zenunim Naamah Agrat bat Mahlat Each with their own truths Each with their own price As Kayla feeds she begins to glimpse the vast and terrible legacy she has inherited a hunger older than death a rage written into creation itself And somewhere in that darkness waits Lucien Fairfax the master who made her and the monster she must destroy But vengeance is not salvation To embrace her power Kayla must decide whether she will remain a pawn in the games of gods and monsters or claim her place as one of the Daughters of Shadow Bloodstained Dreams Daughters of Shadow is the second book in Mike T Whitman's gothic horror saga This tale of betrayal blasphemy and blood weaves myth and nightmare into a story of survival Perfect for fans of dark fantasy gothic horror and the blurred line between damnation and divinity

The Skin Curzio Malaparte, 2013-11-05 This is the first unexpurgated English edition of Curzio Malaparte's legendary work The Skin The book begins in 1943 with Allied forces cementing their grip on the devastated city of Naples The sometime Fascist and ever resourceful Curzio Malaparte is working with the Americans as a liaison officer He looks after Colonel Jack Hamilton a Christian gentleman an American in the noblest sense of the word who speaks French and cites the classics and holds his nose as the two men tour the squalid streets of a city in ruins where liberation is only another word for desperation Veterans of the disbanded Italian army beg for work A rare specimen from the city's famous aquarium is served up at a ceremonial dinner for high Allied officers Prostitution is rampant The smell of death is everywhere Subtle cynical evasive manipulative unnerving always astonishing Malaparte is a supreme artist of the unreliable both the product and the prophet of a world gone rotten to the core

Breaking the Sequence Ellen G. Friedman, Miriam Fuchs, 2014-07-14 These nineteen essays introduce the rich and until now largely unexplored tradition of women's experimental fiction in the twentieth century The writers discussed here range from Gertrude Stein to Christine Brooke Rose and include among others Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Jane Bowles Marguerite Young Eva Figes Joyce Carol Oates and Marguerite Duras Friedman and Fuchs demonstrate the breadth of their research first in their introduction to the volume in which they outline the history of the reception of women's experimental fiction and analyze and categorize the work not only of the writers to whom essays are devoted but of a number of others too and second in an extensive and wonderfully useful bibliography Emma Kafalenos The International Fiction Review After an introduction that is practically itself a monograph eighteen essayists too many of them distinguished to allow an equitable sampling take up three generations of post modernists American Literature The editors see this volume as part of the continuing feminist project of the recovery and foregrounding of women writers Friedman and Fuchs's substantive introduction excellently synthesizes the issues presented in the rest of the volume Patrick D Murphy Studies in the Humanities Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 My Shadow Is My Skin Katherine Whitney, Leila Emery, 2020-03-16 The Iranian revolution of 1979 launched a vast global diaspora with many Iranians establishing new lives in the United States In the four decades since the diaspora has expanded to include not only those who emigrated immediately after the revolution but also their American born children more recent immigrants and people who married into Iranian families all of whom carry their own stories of trauma triumph adversity and belonging that reflect varied and nuanced perspectives on what it means to be Iranian or Iranian American The essays in My Shadow Is My Skin are these stories This collection brings together thirty two authors both established and emerging whose writing captures the diversity of Iranian diasporic experiences Reflecting on the Iranian American experience over the past forty years and shedding new light on themes of identity duality and alienation in twenty first century America the authors present personal narratives of immigration sexuality marginalization marriage and religion that offer an antidote to the news media's often superficial portrayals of Iran and the people who have a connection to it My Shadow Is My Skin illuminates a community that rarely gets to tell its own story Shadows on our Skin Jennifer Johnston, 2014-12-18 Derry in the 1970s teenager Joe Logan is growing up in the teeth of the Troubles having to cope with embittered parents a brother who's been away and come back with money and a gun in his pocket harsh school teachers and the constant awareness of the military presence in the background Central to the story is the friendship that tentatively grows up between Joe and Kathleen a young school teacher who brings a fresh perspective to his familiar world
