Slag The Walt McDonald Firstbook Series In Poetry:

Slag Mark Sullivan, 2005 Poignant poems about moments of grace light beaming through darkness and beauty found in unexpected places Sullivan employs a consistently investigative approach that immediately draws readers in His curiosity and humility are disarming and readers will willingly follow his path of discovery without fear of getting lost becoming overpowered or feeling emotionally spent Sullivan's deftly written poems have a wonderful and appealing balance of emotion and intellect Lyrical elegant and polished his poetry resonates with distinctive imagery and music A strong new poetic voice whose poems add a little more light to the world Booklist The poems in Slag begin with everyday experiences a glance at a construction site or the boredom of waiting for a bus and then use such unpromising events to explore what Mexican poet Octavio Paz once called the dark forgotten miracle of being alive Whether meditating on New York's diamond district or the death of the last person to have known Van Gogh Mark Sullivan's lyric consciousness expands from initial points of contact to ever broadening associations The result is an evocative reflective poetry that recognizes in the slow advance of the loris across its Bronx Zoo cage what it means to love the world or to fear it Sullivan pays special attention to animals and the natural world to the visual arts and to the relentless stimulation of the nation's largest city his free verse creating a lucid language where slam dunks and Zeno's paradoxes coexist where the stillness of a snail discovered in a package of spinach reveals the process that makes the world The poetry of Mark Sullivan slows time down sees the world calmly clearly as a whole with a precise and tender attention that strives to do justice to the complex mysteries of existence In this it is a classical poetry for our time wise humane objective deeply felt paying homage to the wonder and sorrow of our world Louis Asekoff author of North Star From Slag What are stones but the slowest of clocks half lives ticking down every millennium or so subatomic gears meshing like ocean liners

Wild Flight Christine Rhein, 2008 Soaring across extensive terrain from the working world of Detroit to American suburbia and pop culture from the European landscape of World War II to present day Iraq Christine Rhein opens her personal world to the world at large In poems that explore the historical social and scientific as well as the poignant and humorous Rhein relishes life's juxtapositions Wild Flight introduces us to an important new voice This is a poetry of the highest imagination and the most energetic intelligence written by a poet with a keen eye and a large spirit Her hard look at this life is made beautiful by her art Laura Kasischke One of the mysteries of human life is that it is never an individual journey a truth that Christine Rhein discovers over and over in this remarkable first book In Wild Flight she walks us artfully through the histories she comes from and those she is witness to in our time The personal is political in these large minded poems and the political personal Roger Mitchell from Tuning I try to tune out the boom boom boom from the shooting range two miles from my house and think of the people who live next door to the targets or in the din of London and Berlin where nightingales now sing fourteen decibels louder to be heard by mates quintupling the pressure in their lungs Imagine if we could hear bread rising dew forming the budding of raspberries the tear of a cocoon a minnow s pulse our own cells growing dying When my husband kisses my ear I love the swoosh the quiver his breath sand driven by wind my whispered name

Service Bruce Lack, Robert Adon Fink, 2015 What Bruce Lack offers in the poems in Service is truth complex ambiguous paradoxical contradictory impossible about the experiences of a Marine fighting the Iraq War and the jarring transition that comes with returning home to find the war reduced to background noise for a remote civilian population Bruce Lack s forceful authentic poetry confronts the human cost of sending young men and women to fight a war of questionable justification against an insurgency unbound by rules of engagement Lack s poems engage honestly with the frustration of fighting an elusive ruthless enemy the guilt of surviving when others do not and the residual anger that may never leave the generation of veterans of the War on Terror Written in the voice of the Marine but directed toward and accessible to the civilian Service is a book that seeks to close the communication gap between the two twenty four winner of the Walt McDonald First Book Prize in Poetry

Setting the World in Order Rick Campbell, 2001 Rick Campbell s journey from the banks of the Ohio to the beaches of Florida is a rhapsody and the music he makes in ordering his world takes us with him to the headwaters of a new river Rick Campbell s poems leave some sweet dirt under your fingernails proof of hard honest work when the longing of small town America is not enough Setting the World in Order eloquently plots our geographically impossible trajectories On the way Campbell can lay down a narrative as spacious as the range of a blues harmonica every gritty riff dissolving into compassion Dionisio D Mart nez Rick Campbell s poems move with grace and muscle and music from the Catholic working class of his youth its factories and foundries along the rivers of Pennsylvania Ohio and Florida and through the lives of the flesh and blood characters of contemporary America Part prayer part song part gritty story they always dance with meaning and significance they always wholly embrace the idea of individual presence in a terrible beautiful world Frank X Gaspar From Harmonica Lesson Go with the rhythm till you can t get off the track Like this Tight belly staccato hands cutting and freeing the air one hard held bottom line Play between trains Keep the wheels in mind Catch the next one and play all night In the morning try the whistle You ve earned it It should sound like Kansas Setting the World in Order is the tenth winner of the Walt McDonald First Book Prize in Poetry selected by Robert Fink of Hardin Simmons University editor of the Walt McDonald First Book Series
