Sipri Yearbook 1995 Armaments Disarmaments And International Security:

The Evolution of Biological Disarmament Nicholas Roger Alan Sims, 2001 The evolution of the disarmament regime of the 1972 Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention BTWC is described from 1980 when the first BTWC Review Conference was held until 1998 The author analyses the results of our first four review Conferences the meetings of the Ad Hoc Group of Governmental Experts to Identify and Examine Potential Verification Measures from a Scientific and Technical Standpoint the 1994 Special Conference the current negotiations of the Ad Hoc Group to produce an additional protocol the BTWC which may include verification measures handling of the 1997 Cuban allegation of US biological warfare and the implementation of Article X of the BTWC on international transfers and cooperation for peaceful purposes The strength of the BTWC regime is assessed in the light of its evolution through the review process and its changing contents including Russia's admission that it had inherited an offensive biological weapon programme The book applies an original sector by sector approach to its analysis of the BTWC studied in a long term perspective SIPRI Yearbook 1995 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1995 The SIPRI Yearbook 1995 continues SIPRI's review of the latest developments in regional security nuclear weapons world military expenditure the international arms trade and arms production chemical and biological weapons armed conflicts and nuclear and conventional arms control in 1994 The International Arms Trade Rachel Stohl, Suzette Grillot, 2013-04-29 The multi billion dollar business of the international conventional arms trade involves virtually every country in the world Around the globe people's lives are being irrevocably changed by the effects of guns tanks and missiles These weapons have the potential to cause a deadly and current threat one responsible for hundreds of thousands of deaths a year This succinct and accessible new book explores the complexities and realities of the global conventional weapons trade The first book on the subject in nearly a decade The International Arms Trade provides an engaging introduction to the trade the effects and the consequences of these weapons The authors trace the history of the arms trade and examine how it has evolved since the end of the Cold War In particular they assess the role of the largest arms exporters and importers the business of selling conventional arms around the world and shed new light on the illicit arms trade and the shadowy dealers who profit from their deadly commerce The book also looks closely at the devastating effect the business can have on countries societies and individuals and concludes with an evaluation of the various existing control strategies and the potential for future control opportunities The International Arms Trade will be invaluable for students and scholars of international relations and security studies and for policymakers and anyone interested in understanding more about the conventional arms trade The Weapons Legacy of the Cold War Dietrich Schroeer, Alessandro Pascolini, 2019-01-15 First published in 1997 this volume builds its discussion on a technological base along with policy implications and constitutes a review of the current situation in international security created by the Cold War and how the end of the Cold War is likely to change the situation As the close of the Cold War created a multitude of changes in international security resulting in a broad range of topics tackled in this collection It features specialists in military technology physics political science public and international affairs Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas,2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship Confidence- and Security-building Measures in the New Europe Zdzisław Lachowski,2004 Arms Sales and Regional Stability The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS),2023-04-28 The book considers the main arms exporting countries including China Russia and the US as well as several European states and the policies each employs in deciding advanced weapons sales to key regions of the world It examines whether such sales are inherently stabilising or de stabilising regarding regional security Regions reviewed in detail include the Middle East and the Indo Pacific Combat aircraft sales are a focus for the volume given both their practical and symbolic importance The volume focuses on the behaviour and policies of the main arms exporting nations since the end of the Cold War shifts in their arms export policies and the tensions that can emerge within or between countries over proposed arms sales It also considers the impact of countries that were previously only recipients of advanced weapons moving to develop their own defence industrial base The Politics and Economics of Defence Industries Efraim Inbar,Benzion Zilberfarb,2013-09-13 This volume provides a policy relevant analysis of the complex web of contemporary economic trends political developments and strategic considerations that are shaping the contours of the new post Cold War world market for weaponry The Path of a Genocide Astri Suhrke,2017-07-05 The Great Lakes region of Africa has seen dramatic changes After a decade of war repression and genocide loosely allied regimes have replaced old style dictatorships The Path of a Genocide examines the decade 1986 97 that brackets the 1994 genocide in Rwanda This collection of essays is both a narrative of that event and a deep reexamination of the international role in addressing humanitarian issues and complex emergencies Nineteen donor countries and seventeen multilateral organizations international agencies and international nongovernmental organizations pooled their efforts for an in depth evaluation of the international response to the conflict in Rwanda Original studies were commissioned from scholars from Uganda Rwanda Zaire Ethiopia Norway Great Britain France Canada and the United States While each chapter in this volume focuses on one dimension of the Rwanda conflict together they tell the story of this unfolding genocide and the world s response The Path of a Genocide offers readers a perspective in sharp contrast to the tendency to treat a peace agreement as the end to conflict This is a detailed effort to make sense of the political crisis and genocide in Rwanda and the effects it had on its neighbors

Conflict and the Environment N.P. Gleditsch,2013-04-17 Nils Petter Gleditsch International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO Department of Sociology and Political Science Norwegian University of Science and Technology Trondheim This book could hardly have happened but for the end of the Cold War The decline of the East West conflict has opened up the arena for increased attention to other lines of conflict in Europe and at the global level Environmental disruption not a new phenomenon by any means is a chief beneficiary of the shift in priorities in the public debate The Scientific and Environmental Affairs Division of NATO has moved with the times and has defined environmental security as one of its priority areas for cooperation with Central and Eastern Europe and countries of the former Soviet Union This book is the main output of an Advanced Research Workshop ARW held in Bolkesjøl Norway 12-16 June 1996 I would like to acknowledge the personal support of L Veiga da Cunha Director of the Priority Area on Environmental Security Research on these issues is now very much a collaborative effort across former lines of division in Europe NATO encourages indeed requires that this be reflected in the composition of the participants as well as the organizing committee This meeting was organized by a group of five people from five different countries Lothar Brock Germany Nils Petter Gleditsch Norway Thomas Homer Dixon Canada Renat Perelet Co Director Russia and Evan Vlachos USA
